Rev. James Hall
Baltimore, Md.

Dear Sir.

Your favor of the 19th to Lewis Tappan Esq. has been placed in my hands. We wish to send freight by your ship, if we can make arrangements to do so.

If we send, say from forty to sixty barrels in bulk, can we consign them to your care, by the "Steam Ship Line", (Cornwell's) and have them shipped in the "— Stevens", without our sending our agent to Baltimore, to see to it.

Can you purchase for us, for shipment, 20 (twenty) half bbls good flour and two bbls good salt beef, and have them shipped by at the same time?

Will it be in season for passengers to be in Baltimore Monday Nov. 1.?

Please reply to these questions in order, by telegraph; so that we can ship the goods Saturday, to be in Baltimore Monday; & oblige.

Yours &c George Whipple, Gen. Sec.
