Mr George Hall

Dear Sir. I have this morning your letter of 29th post marked 31st Oct. Sorry you did not mail it earlier. You need not give the Order for the balance on Mc Gill in cash as I can in a few days ship from N.York.

I mail some letters to day which I hope will be in time for your African mail bag to-morrow morning. I am glad to hear that the Stevens is full & running over, good!

Please send me Bills of Lading for the goods sent to Savage that I may effect insurance. I do not wish to have you insure them. When are you coming to N.Y.? All well. adieu

Yours
