THE BARROLL ORGAN is surely solicitous for the welfare of those who are likely to be beneficiaries of Organization patronage. It seems to know better what Mr. Ahern is going to do than Mr. Ahern himself. It says Mr. Ahern has promised Messrs. Johnson, Matthews, and George offices, and that Mr. Ahern is simply jollying them. Well, the Transcript office is a good place to get Organization truth!

In this connection, we wonder how many men have been promised support for the postoffice, by the Barroll people. Hicks, Thompson, Moffett, &c., &c., a complication that has shut off an absolute declaration for any one man before the primaries.

Now, if one is able to read between the lines, one can always see in the political buncome charged up to the Organization by the Antis, a reflection of their own position and actions. There is not one solid plank in their platform, and we fail to see how it can appeal to any except the most prejudiced.

THERE is one sturdy fact that defies all argument, viz: that no matter who spent the county's money, the Antis DID NOT SAVE IT. It has been by no system of economy, Mr. Taxpayer, that you face a 94c rate today; you went down in your pockets at the order of Mr. Barroll and paid for this 94c rate, in order that Mr. Barroll and his cohorts could wave before the eyes of the people of Kent a flag, on which he would have you believe is woven an emblem of economy and good government; but which is as much a delusion and a snare as is the skull and crossbones of a piratical freebooter.

Your welfare, Mr. Taxpayer, was never thought of in the manipulation of tax rates. If the Antis could have defended the $1.85 rate, they would never have shouldered it upon the Organization. This is the old, old story of Eden, "The serpent beguilded me and I did eat." Unlike the history of primitive man and woman, the Barrollites do not want to suffer for the sin. Oh! no, they reap the benefits of it, and from the sow's ear, they show a silk purse; from the thistle plant, they show us a fragrant rose; and from the dunghill they dig up fine apples.

The Anti Organ is appealing to the voters of Kent for support upon the ground of economy. The plea of economy is based mainly upon the reduction of a tax rate from $1.85 to 94c. This is an absolutely mistaken ground. If, when, the Anti Board of County Commissioners gained control, they had levied a rate somewhere near what had been the previous average, and by their management and thrift had reduced expenses so as to enable them to cut the rate to 94c, they might have had some reason for self gratulation. But they drew the hard cash from the pockets of the tax-payers by the imposition of an abnormally high tax rate, $1.85, paid off indebtedness by the income from that rate; then assessed a $1.22 rate, paid off more; then, when election times roll around, come down to 94c, use it as a political lever, and raise the false cry of economy. There was no economy in it. The Antis should have no credit. The people paid the bills with hard cash, and, in many cases with a great deal of effort.

This 94c rate is one of the great talking points of the Anti Campaign. Will sensible people be deceived by it? And are the men who countenance such questionable methods worthy the support of an honest suffrage? We ask the people of Kent to consider this, and all the other flimsy arguments put up to rake in votes.

HE SHOULD RESIGN.

Mr. Samuel G. Caldwell, candidate for County Treasurer on the Barroll ticket, is also the minority member of the Board of Election Supervisors.

The former condition should eliminate the latter. He should resign as a member of the Election Supervisors, or withdraw from the primary contest. That he does neither is an evidence of the weakening of the Barroll sentiment. Mr. Caldwell is fearful of a defeat at the primaries, therefore he is holding on to his office.

All the ethics of politics would frown down upon a man who is helping to manage his own election. He is connected with all the machinery that puts into action the election wheels; and it is manifestly unfair to the other candidates that he should have any say in the election arrangement. Attorney-General Poe says in his opinion Mr. Caldwell should resign.

Mr. Voter, study the ways and means of the Anti candidates and compare them with the Organization standard bearers. Contrast them man to man, judge dispassionately, and then tell us which are the men best equipped for office—best calculated to run this county in the interest of ALL—and not in the interest of one man—H. H. Barroll, Esq.

ORGANIZATION STANDS FOR THE PEOPLE.

Much has been said by the Antis during this and other campaigns, concerning the intention of the Organization to effect certain legislation, whereby there would be saddled upon the county large sums of money without the consent of the voters.

We desire to take this opportunity to say that our candidates when elected to the legislature, will always favor any laws looking toward the good of all the people. If the schools of this county need help in order to meet the demands of an always increasing expenditure, an expenditure made necessary by the efforts of those in power to keep public education abreast of the times; if the county's public buildings are inadequate to the proper accommodation of our judiciary, and not equal to the task of affording safe and commodious protection to the commonwealth's records—then we do not desire to stand as obstructionists in the way of progress and improvements absolutely necessary.

And we desire further to say that we believe the people have a sovereign right to say how their money shall be spent, and a right to demand all legislation to be submitted to them for either adoption or rejection.

Our candidates, then, stand committed to the principles of the referendum—and, all accusations to the contrary notwithstanding, pledge themselves to that principle of progressive Democracy which constitutes the people, the court of last resort.

LET'S COMPARE.

WE take it as a compliment that the Barroll organ gives so much space to such representative men as W. W. Beck, Esq., S. Scott Beck, Esq., Harrison W. Vickers, Esq., and Mr. Charles L. Dodd, —all Organization Progressive Wilson Democrats.

The effort, however, was to discredit them in the eyes of Democrats for what they are, rather than for what they are not; to create a prejudice against them; to belittle them in the estimation of a Barroll constituency because of their ability; to bluff people into believing that they are unfit for office because of the possession of official capabilities not found in the rank and file of Anti revolutionists.

The method adopted in the article headed, "Always after a Job," was to present them as perennial office-seekers.

How flat all this falls when one stops to consider that Mr. Sam Hicks, who has given his valuable services to the county for some time past, is looking longingly at the postoffice plum. Mr. Kibler, who filled the clerkship so acceptably, is now desirous of seeing how well a legislative chair fits him. Mr. Harris, who two years ago "helped to save the lives of Kent countians," desires again to visit "Ye Ancient City;" Mr. W. Wethered Barroll has started with a rush for office which may not end until he has attained even to the caretaker of the Anti "Democratic Progress Headquarters;" and Hope H. Barroll, Esq., in the possession of one, hopes his reputation of boss of all does not suffer. For when any man of the Anti ticket is elected, that man's service is regulated entirely by the Boss.

Mr. Wm. H. McKee, now filling one office, wants to manage two at the same time; Mr. Benj Crew also is willing to take another term as commissioner.

For the short political history of the Antis, this is going some, and when they put such men as these in the public eye, we are willing to have them compared with Messrs. Becks, Vickers, and Dodd, for the former suffer by comparison with the latter.

It seems to be very ill-advised, too, to mention Mr. Vickers' name—that of a man whom the Antis were over-anxious to enlist on their side, but whom they were unable to coral.

We thank you, gentlemen of the Antis, for giving such men so prominent notice; for in the mention of the offices which you say these representative citizens are after, you only bear testimony to the special fitness of these solid Organization Democrats for said offices; and were you to search the ranks of the Barrollites over, you could not find their superior. You unconsciously paid their efficiency a high tribute.

Mrs. Carrie Ford, of Baltimore, spent a few days at the home of her brother, Mr. Edward Ford.

Epworth League will be led this Sunday evening by Mr. A. J. Hackett. Topic—"Books that have helped me."

POLITICAL CATECHISM.

Question.— Who advises voters not to vote for Best Men.

Answer—. The Barroll organ.

Q.— Which faction has a ticket controlled by no one man?

A.— The organization.

Q. Who are the men on this ticket?

A.— John P. Ahern, E. M. Taylor, J. Henry Thompson, W. E. Brown, C. L. Dodd, Howard Turner, Robert Shallcross, Wm. H. Stradley, Geo. R. Rasin, Vernon Barnett, J. T. Hadaway, Frank Skirven.

Q.— Are they good Democrats?

A.— They are. Not only good Democrats, but men of character, sobriety and intelligence.

Q.— Can any man vote for these men and feel that they will do their duty without dictation from any one man?

A.— Yes.

Q.— Who named Adam Startt as candidate for Sheriff?

A.— H. H. Barroll and his faction.

Q.— Who sent his name all over Kent with other candidates endorsing him for sheriff?

A.— The Barroll faction.

Q.— Who carried his name at head of editorial column?

A.— The Barroll organ,

Q.— Who named him as deputy Sheriff.

A.— The Barroll faction.

Q.— Is he still holding office under Sheriff McKee?

A.— He is.

IN stating the figures indicating the difference between the disbursements of the Antis, and of the Organization Democrats, the Barroll organ would give the impression that this difference in their favor was accomplished by their methods of economy and good management. This is deception, pure and simple; it was accomplished in the main by the great saving on roads and bridges—a direct resultant of the road law, which they have never ceased to villify.

If one would only look at the situation calmly and honestly, it would not be difficult to see that the Barroll control of county affairs cannot be exerted in any direction that would effect a saving in county expense.

The departments of county government, which represent the greatest outlay, are not in the hands of the Barrollites to regulate. It is because of this they are continually charging the regular Democracy with exhorbitant demands for MONEY.

The Antis do not control the road expenditure; they do control the schools; they do not control court expenses, salaries of county officials, &c., &c.; and in the face of all this they would seek to bluff the people into the belief that by their economy they have reduced expenses, when it is in the main done by saving on roads.

The attitude of the whole Barroll movement today is one of usurpation. The excuse for its existence is a lamentably weak one, and the methods of its organ, the Transcript, have not the support of those even of the Anti movement who are capable of doing their own thinking.

ONLY DEMOCRATS WILL CONTEST.

20,000 MILE TRIP.

Four Cowboys Arrive in Chestertown Wednesday Visiting Every State in the Union.

Chestertown was invaded Wednesday evening by the overland Westerners, a party of four young men of frontier type direct from the "Wild and Woolly West," with the celebrated pack horse Pinto and a dog, Nip. The four Westerners, C. C. Beck, J. B. Bausam, G. W. Beck and R. G. Wayne, reached here on horseback Wednesday night and put up at Whiteley's stables after an adventurous trip of 10,000 miles across the Rockies, fording flooded rivers, crossing the broad plains of the Dakotas and the hills of Montana, and are now on their way to Augusta, Maine, where they will turn about for their return trip of 10,000 actional miles which will lead them south toward Mexico and toward their goal and the city of San Francisco. The object of these hardy young men is to test the endurance of Pinto, the pack horse, an extraordinary bronco of Arabian blood, but noted for his endurance. If the party succeeds in safely bringing this horse through to San Francisco they win a wager of $20,000. The party started May 1st, 1912, from Olympia, Washington, and have already passed through 16 States on their way East, and before the trip ends will have passed through every State in the Union. The trip will take 3 years, ending at the Panama Exposition in June, 1915. In crossing the mountains in the spring of 1912 they were the first party for the year to cross the Cascade range through Santa Anna Pass, where they found 12 feet of snow. They swam Powder River in Montana because there was no bridge. Many adventures befell them, during which they lost four of their horses.

To my friends in Kent County.

After careful consideration of my candidacy for the Sheriff's office, I have concluded that since I have no family, nor any one who can assist me in properly keeping the county jail in the cooking, attending to prisoners, etc., that it is best for me to withdraw from the contest in favor of Mr. Robert J. McWhorter. I wish to thank my friends most warmly for the encouragement they have given to me and to earnestly request them to unite with me in supporting the entire Anti Organization ticket and especially in supporting Mr. McWhorter for Sheriff and defeating the Organization candidate for this office.
