G. W. L. Hall.

Dear Sir. I enclose a check for fifteen Dollars to be placed to credit of Titus Brown's account. This seems only to settle his expenses & money advances in Baltimore.

Titus says he paid the Steward of the Vessel $3. for board. If so perhaps you were not aware of it when you paid him $5. and that amount can be saved. Titus' Mother is now working out by weeks wages all the expenses of his return & for her sake I want to save as much as possible. Besides the sum now ~~board~~ I have $5. toward the passage money home per Mr. C. Stevens.

Respectfully Yours.
