Norfolk Va. 2nd Decr. 1858

Dear Sir,

A small paccage of Coffee was put on board the M. C. Stevens at Buchanan, by a miss Maria Goodson, directed to her father Lewis Goodson. on her last return voyage from Liberia. I expect it was imperfectly marked and directed. But if you have left on hand in your room of uncalled for articles any such package, marked to Lewis, or, L. Goodson, please send it to Norfolk, directed to Mr. Henry Constable's Care, Norfo. Va. He will settle charges upon it.

Your immediate attention to this will much oblige

Yours Respectfully
