Col. Rooms,
Nash. 28 Dec. 1858

My Dear Sirs

Yours of 24 & 27th inst. with their inclosures are received.

I return the letter of L. Noble & draft for $28.07 endorsed — I beg you will forward the boy as you suggest.

I perceive your showing for the Board for two voyages C & D, does not include your Salary $1.000.00, which I paid you Jan. 22. 1858.

Your accounts for 2 C & D show that first item of $2.832.15 as $2.994.15 — I cannot find what you have done with the $162.00 difference.

Your a/c. for voyage D show the payments $7186.78 (without the half years insurance 1651) add ins. 1.651 = $8.837.78, while your showing makes all only 7.452.94. — You a/c. ~~for~~ show your receipts to be $~~[illegible]~~ $4.918.02, your showing makes the same $4999.02 —

Our books make the estimated emgts. for V. D. 64 adults & 44 chil = $3.010.00 — You make 69 adults & 38 chil = 3.030.00 —

I suppose it too late now
