ACCIDENTS.

Two bay steamers became disabled Saturday and the passengers from both were transferred to other boats and carried to their destination. The steamer Westmoreland, on the way to Love Point, broke her walking beam off Fort Carroll. She was towed back to her berth and the steamer Old Point Comfort of the same line proceeded to Love Point with the passengers. The Ford left Chestertown at 7 30 p. m. Saturday and made her trip Sunday to Love Point.

Coming to Baltimore from Tolchester at 12.15 o'clock in the afternoon the steamer Annapolis, of the Tolchester Company, blew a hole in one of her boilers off North Point. The steamer Cambridge, from Claiborne, made fast to the disabled steamer and the passengers were transferred without any excitement. The Cambridge proceeded to Baltimore and the Annapolis was towed in by the tug Boothe.

OUTBUILDINGS BURNED.

The stable and barn on the S. M. Usilton farm in Broad Neck were burned Thursday morning with ten tons of hay and some implements. The carriage house, corn crib and contents were saved as were the horses, wheat and most of the implements. The fire originated in the cow yard and looks like pipe or cigarettes again caused the fire. Mr. Milton Crew is tenant and is at a loss to know the origin. The loss is partly carried by insurance in the Kent Mutual.

The stable on the Robert Morgan farm near Kennedyville, was burned Thursday morning. Mr. John H. Clendanie and a host of workers saved adjoining houses and property.

THE Ladies of Crumpton M. P. Church will hold a box social and festival Saturday evening August 23. Every one welcome.

CHESTERTOWN, - MARYLAND

FOUND!

I HAVE solved the problem—it's no longer a theory, it has drifted into the undisputed fact column—HOW to dress men correctly and economically. This fact has been proven to the entire satisfaction of over three-score and ten residents of my town alone, this season, who have learned by comparison that I am offering better materials, better trimmings and better workmanship for less money than they now find in ready-made clothes; and these fabrics are made to your individual measure and fully guaranteed in every particular. HOW is it? No stock to carry and carry over—no expenses, comparatively, to do business—that's the solution.

I received instructions yesterday to announce to my patrons that beginning July 25th, I could offer ONE-THIRD OFF on Two Hundred and Fifty Patterns of All-Wool Suitings and Trouserings.

SO, to those who are not supplied, I would advise an early inspection.

RACES NEXT WEEK

Chestertown Will Entertain Thousands at the Kent and Queen Anne's Fair—New Grand Stand, Stables, Etc.—Track in Fine Shape.

BOAT RACES ON THURSDAY A. M.

Everything is in readiness for the big week beginning Tuesday, Aug. 26th-29th, at Radcliffe Driving Park, Chestertown, on the Walker-Wright farm.

The managers of the Kent & Queen Anne's Fair are offering a very attractive program for the four days' meet at the fair. There will be fine racing each day and the aggregate in money prizes offered is between three and four thousand dollars. In additien to these there will be large attractions in the nature of side shows and entertainments for both the old and young. Tuesday, August 26th, will be children's day and also the baby and health contest will be held at ten o'clock on that day. There will be nine prizes offered and Dr. Thomas, of Better Babies Bureau. will be present. On Wednesday and Thursday, August 27th and 28th, W. G. Flepcon, the world's greatest aeronaut, will ascend several thousand feet in his gigantic balloon and make a descent of 500 feet in his parachute.

25 cents Tuesday and Friday, 50 cents Wednesday and Thursday. Season tickets $1 00, good for each day of Fair. Grand Stand and Quarter Stretch Tickets will be sold for 25 cents each day of the Fair.

No charge will be made for teams or autos. Children under 12 years free on Tuesday, half price other days.

A grandstand to seat 1200 people has been completed during the week by Messrs. Cannan and Thompson. It is painted and will be gaily decorated in flags and bunting for the fair. Three extra stables have also been erected, and there is now stable room at the track for more than 100 horses.

The track is in first-class shape, and there will be record time made. The track is regarded as one of the fastest and best half-mile tracks in the country.

There will be an extensive exhibit of farm machinery and farm implements in large tents to be provided for the purpose.

Special privileges have been sold for refreshments, light lunches and peanuts, lemonade, chewing gum and cigars. Mr. John S. Vandergrift has the privilege for selling sandwiches and sausage.

The fair management, Mr. James G. Beck, president, and Mr. Clifton L. Jarrell, secretary, are doing everything possible for the success of the affair.

Messrs. M. E. Baker, George Burke and S. O. Crouch have painted things red and Mr. Wm. Patrick has put in several wells of fine water. In some places he had only to go 11 feet to strike excellent water.

Any one having furnished sleeping rooms to rent during the Fair will please communicate with Mr. John S. Vandergrift.

Among the early fall activities of the Just Government League are suffrage campaigns at the various county fairs and grange picnics. Permission to have a suffrage tent or booth on the grounds has been granted to the suffrage workers, and committees of local women assisted by Miss Trax from the Baltimore office of the league, will be in charge of the work. Big stacks of suffrage rainbow fliers will be dirtributed at the Fair grounds and suffrage talks will be made. It will be a sort of continuous performance, with the suffragists working in relays.

DEATH OF B. F. FLEMING.

Dies Suddenly on Chester Bridge—Had Been in Poor Health—A Good Citizen.

This community received a severe shock Wednesday when the news of the death of Mr. Benjamin F. Fleming was reported. Mr. Fleming had gone on Chester bridge, near his cosy home, to enjoy his favorite sport of fishing. He had caught several fair-size rock on the Kent side of the draw and was watching his line intently when he quietly sank to the floor and fell over lifeless. Bridge-Keeper Wheat was near Mr. Fleming and states that he never uttered a word nor made an outcry. He had been in fine spirits all day, mingling with friends up town and looking better than usual. His body was brought to his home on Water street by friendly hands of employes at work on the bridge and coroner Smith gave a verdict of death from apoplexy.

The deceased had been suffering from heart trouble for some months and had to give up his active canvas all over this Peninsula of machinery and phosphate early this year.

Mr. Fleming was born of a well-known Delaware family March, 1850, and came to Kent as agent of the Baltimore & Delaware Bay Railroad. He rose to be general manager under Fred. Gerker and showed his mettle in keeping this road in running order. He had some trying times in this position but made good. After leaving the railroad he bought several schooners and sold lime, &c., but this proved his financial downfall. Since the wrecking of his boats he has been selling machinery and phosphate all over the Delmarvia Peninsula.

He married Miss Mollie Plummer, daughter of the late beloved James H. Plummer, who survives with one daughter, Mary. The deceased also leaves three brothers and two sisters, viz, Harry and Lizzie Fleming, Aberdeen, Mrs Fannie Johnson, Denton; Dr. Zadoc Fleming, Harrington; James, of Seattle.

The funeral will take place this Saturday morning at 11.30, interment at Chester cemetery, Dr. L. E. Barrett officiating. The pall-bearers will be Messrs. Merrick Clements, Fred. G. Usilton, Lewin W. Wickes, J. Frank Connelly, Charles Baxter, and Thomas W. Perkins. C. L. Dodd, undertaker.

RULES FOR RACES.

Rule 1—Failure on the part of any boat to observe the rules and regulations will cause same to be ruled out by the judges.

Rule 2—All boats must call at the judges' boat in time before the race, for their class is called to receive their number. All races will be called by a crier at least 10 minutes prior to the preliminary signal. All boats taking part in the race called, must upon hearing preliminary signal, at once go back of starting line. Five minutes after preliminary signal starting signal will be given, and fifteen seconds later a "Time limit signal." All boats must cross starting line between starting signal and time limit signal. Any boat crossing outside of said fifteen seconds will be barred out of said race.

Rule 3—Boats racing must run directly down stream until turning signal is given, when said boats must at once turn to the right and come back to the starting line. Boats running below the red buoy must pass said buoy going and returning on the Kent county side.

Rule 4—Any boat increasing its speed on return run to starting line over and above that of the run down stream by fifteen seconds, due allowance being made for tide, the judges shall rule said boat out of the race.
