I wish you would thank to Mr. Lackman my thanks for his sale of that coffee — I asked you a question in mine of the 23 which you have not ans.— viz. how much is one ton?

Yesterday by Telegraph
I asked you to pay something for me at Union Bank — I wrote you after I went home to dinner — I presume I shall hear from you tomorrow all about it — I will by that or the day following see how much money
I can send you —

Yours my dear
W. W. Hall
