Col. Rooms,
Wash. City, 12 Jan. 1859

Gentlemen

Yours of the 10th is receiv'd. and I inclose you check for $751.00 to pay his note due tomorrow — you —

Since I saw you, we have learned that so many of the Echo's died that Mr. Dennis must have in hand a surplus, which he can use to pay expenses at Camp-bury — & hence I do not want to send any thing to him at present.

I shall write by the Ocean Eagle, which is to sail direct for Monrovia the 15 — & also send some medicines & a few other matters which I should have sent in the Rush, Benson, but —

Yours faithfully
W. McLain
