Col. Rooms,
Wash. City, 15 Jan. 1859

My Dear Sir

Yours of yesterday is received, with its inclosure.

Mrs. Riggins people have & are included in both your & our estimate of Vor. C. — The Ship took 163 emgts. all told — 112 adults — 44 Chil'n & 7 babies, too small to be seen without the intervention of a magnifying glass.

We are all sorry to hear that Miss Kate is not well — as we have expecting to see her next week, with you. I hope she may be well enough to come with you. I have one favor to ask of you — viz. that you will come prepared to sit down quietly for at least a week — & not do as you usually do get sick out of humor the first night & put off home the next morning. Just bring you tea & bread & butter & whatever else you thrive on, with you — & you may eat it when you please & go to bed the moment the clock strikes ten o'clock.

Yours faithfully
W. McSain
