Duplicate Monrovia February 19. 1859

Doct Sd. Hall,

Dear Sir,

Enclosed, is an Invoice of sundry produce shipped on board the "M. C. Stevens", by me, ~~for~~ and consigned to yourself for account of Messrs. Coates & Brown of Philadelphia. I am well, and still holding on to Liberia, her trials & difficulties notwithstanding

Very truly Yours
D. B. Warner.

Mar 9. 1859.

Since the sailing of the "Stevens", one of my sons (14 years old,) has unfortunately lost one of his arms. The accident occurred by the firing of his gun, upon which he was resting his elbow.—

I hope you are getting better in body & in mind.

Respectfully D. B. Warner
