MAJORITY RULE AND THE OFFICES

State Committee Supposed to be a Factor — Organization Democrats Control This Body by a Large Majority, and if Mr. Wilson Follows His Rule He Will Have to Listen to Regulars in Making Federal Appointments Here — Precedents for Applicants For Appointments as Postmasters.

As a result of the Democratic primary election on Monday President Wilson finds himself facing a dilemma in Maryland.

The issue was clearly drawn between the organization forces and the so-called progressive Democrats, who declared that they had the sympathy of the President in their fight; that if they won they would be influential in naming the appointees to the big federal offices in the State.

The President is on record as giving favorable consideration to recommendations of State central committees of his party in making appointments in States.

The organization forces therefore will pull a few plums out of the federal office grab bag.

The so-called Progressive Democrats are taking a different tack since they failed on Monday to win control of the state convention and of the State Central Committee, despite their desperate efforts to win and despite their appeals that they were the "true blue" Wilson Democrats, that a vote for their candidates was an indorsement of the President's administration, etc., etc. In their zeal to appropriate the federal offices to themselves the Progressives, since their upset, have sought refuge behind Senator Lee, who, they say, was nominated for the United States Senate without opposition. They declare that he will be their Moses to lead them to the land of milk and honey, that is, the federal office pasture. The fact that Senator Lee failed in his fight to capture control of his party in the state plays no part now in the calculations of the Progressives.

AS TO POSTMASTERS.

The rule of the President to follow the recommendations of State Central Committees in their appointment of postmasters is more specific than in making other appointments. At the Postoffice Department, the statement was made officially by the Postmaster General, that he would observe the majority recommendations of the State Central Committee for each county and he proceeded to adhere to this rule in the appointment of a postmaster at Millington. This rule was accepted as a fixed one by Maryland Democrats and they proceeded to act accordingly. The regulars and the Progressives went after the State Central Committee in each county. In less than half a dozen counties have the Progressives captured a majority of these committees. Regular Democrats in these counties concede to the Progressives the right to recommend postmasters in those counties for appointment.

But how about the 20 or more counties which the regulars carried? They declare that what is sauce for the goose is also sauce for the gander.

In Kent county Hope H. Barroll, the leader of the so-called Progressives on the Eastern Shore, lost control of the state central committee on Monday. The question now arises: Will the President listen to Mr. Barroll in making other appointments, including postmaster in Kent county? Will he listen to Mr. Barroll, who was supposed to be a mighty factor in recommending postmasters in all Eastern Shore towns, or will he listen to the recommendations of Senator John Walter Smith, whose friends control every county on the Eastern Shore, except Somerset?

This issue was clearly defined in the ante-primary election campaign. The Progressives lost. They pulled the President, willing or unwilling, into the fight, and the President's prestige has suffered, though his favorite for the Senate, W. L. Marbury, took no part in it. He went to Europe.—Ex.

VOTE IN QUEEN ANNE'S.

The primary election in Queen Anne's proved a surprise to all concerned.

Owing to the large number of candidates on the organization side for Register of Wills, Sheriff and Caunty Commissioners the progressives were successful in this contest. Wm T. Bishop was nominated for Register of Wills, Sanford E Spry for Sheriff and Harry S. Covington and Wm. E. Denny, progressives, and J. Batemen Hopking regular, for the county board.

Kent Island, proved the deciding factor in several close races. Facing a lead of 51 votes held by Dr. N. S. Dudley, progressive, of Church Hill, former State Senator James E. Kirwan, organization was deprived of his seat on the State Central Committee by his own district. Mr. Kirwan was the ablest lieutenant of Mr. George, and his defeat by a progressive is a crushing blow. Mr. George and R. W. Thomas, organization, were re-elected to the State Central Committee.

The organization delegates to the State convention were elected by safe pluralities. The organization candidates for the House of Delegates had a walk-over, Eugene L. Dudley, a former legislator, leading the entire ticket. The winning candidates were:

Register of Wills—William T. Bishop, Progressive.

Legislative Delegates—Eugene L. Dudley and Wm. Otho Thomas, Regulars.

County Commissioners—Harry S. Covington and William E. Denny, Progressives, and J. Bateman Hopkins, Regular.

Sheriff—Sanford E. Spry, Progressive.

Conaention Delegates—George W. Butler, James F. Everett and William T. P. Turpin, Regulars.

State Central Committee—Norman S. Dudley, Progressive and John E. George and R. W. Thomas, Regulars.

DR. HERING'S RETIREMENT.

It is with great regret we note the retirement of Dr. Joshua W. Hering, one of the State's big men from business life. He is critically ill at his home in Westminster, much to the regret of the people. He has long been prominent in the public life of the State, and has been active in the Democratic party for years. Up to the Crothers administration he was one of the party's most honored councilors, and his party loyalty has never been questioned. Although he was one of the most popular men in the party of the State, and his advice on party matters was constantly sought by the party leaders, he never sought political office until 1895, when, in response to the demands of the people of his county, he became a candidate for the State Senate. He served through the sessions of 1896 and 1898, and in 1899 he was elected Comptroller. He was re-elected in 1901. His long experience as a banker fully qualified him for this office, and the administration of the State's finances during these two terms was marked by unusual excellence. He declined renomination in 1903, and was succeeded by Comptroller Atkinson, who served two terms. Dr. Hering was nominated for the office again in 1907 and renominated in 1900 without opposition. Dr. Hering was re-elected and continued in office until the formation of the Public Service Commission, Governor Crothers taking him from the Comptroller's office to make him a Public Service Commissioner. The Governor appointed with him Jas. H. Ambler, who afterward resigned to succeed Judge Niles on the bench, and Philip D. Laird, the present chairman of the commission.

RESOLUTIONS OF RESPECT.

WHEREAS, God in His infinite wisdom, has deemed fit to remove from our order our friend and member; and

WHEREAS, the death of Miss Elmer Rasin has brought the keenest sorrow to the hearts of those who knew her and were proud to claim her as a friend; be it

Resolved, That we, the members of the Daughters of America, do hereby extend to her stricken loved ones our sincerest sympathy in this hour of their bereavement with the earnest trust that Providence sustain them in their affliction; and be it further

Resolved, That copies of this resolution be sent to her sister, entered upon the general minutes of the order and published in the county papers at large.

By the members of the Chestertown Council No. 58 of the Daughters of America.
