Monrovia Feby 23. 1859

Dear Doctor

I have not found time to write a line to you — it is now the moment for Mrs Draper's embarkation to return to her parents, the foto of our young friend Draper you will learn from her.

I have sold off all of her effects, and with the proceeds have paid expenses leaving but a trifle for her not sufficient to pay her passage. she has accounts, which she will show you

The Captain has been told that you will pay or caused to be paid her passage from or to Palmas $15.— and from Palmas to the U. States $100 — making $115.

There remains to be sold a few book, the sale of which I could not get through with in the one day I had allowed for the purpose, but they are not of much value, the best having been sold — There is one box on board the Benson, contents unknown — to be received and sold —

Present my respects to yr daughter

Your bye

Yours
