Col. Rooms,
Wash. 8 Sep. 1860

Gentlemen

Yours of yesterday received saying "we have accepted your draft for $1.000.00". But I have not drawn any draft for that amount. I wanted to do it yesterday, but as I received no authority, I did not, but raised the money another way. So now taking it for granted that you will do what you say you had done, I draw on you for $1.000.00. I wonder what is the matter with you both! Are you sick!

I wrote you yesterday about money matters & hope I shall get an answer back to-morrow.

Have you read thoroughly the Nat. Col. Journal for Sep. If not please do.

Yours mostly
W. McLain
