An Interesting Fact.—The largest amount of business ever done in a single day by the firm of Bordley & Sons, The Men's Store, was done last Saturday, Oct. 4th. If you have curiosity enough to know how the trick was turned, read their advertisement in this issue, and it will tell you.

Young men who have not yet gotten an "Adler Rochester" Book of Styles, will do well to give your names and address to Bordley & Sons and they will mail you at once this book. It has something interesting for you to know about the famous "Adler" line. Don't buy with your eyes shut. Ask them.

ROCK HALL NOTES.

A most practical exposition of the scriptural incident found in Acts 8: 1-11, was given by Rev. J. W. Prettyman last Sunday morning on christian duty in church attendance and work. Unlike some previous pastors, Mr. Prettyman allowed due deduction for environment, infirmities or conscientious scruples. After the sermon the communion of the Lord's Supper was administered, a large number participating. The pastor was assisted by Rev. George S. Conaway, a former pastor here. Mr. Conaway addressed a large and appreciative audience Sunday evening. The reverend gentleman is much enfeebled by age and poor health, but his spiritual faculties are as vigorous as in the days of other years. Rev. Mr. Prettyman and Rev. O. B. Rice, of Pomona, will exchange pulpits to-morrow for the day.

Mrs. Perry Hague and Mrs. Belle Scoone have been elected delegates to the Kent County Sunday School Convention to be held at Still Pond next Tuesday.

The Rev. Mr. and Mrs. Conaway, of Smyrna, Del., are guests of Mr. and Mrs. Abram Casey.

The people of this section were very much shocked on Monday evening upon learning of the death of Mr. J. W. Harrison, who dropped dead white at work in his oystering boat. Mr. Harrison was about 35 years old and well respected throughout the community. He leaves a widow and a number of small children and three brothers and and sister. He was a Jr. O. U. A. M., and that order attended the funeral and assisted in the funeral service on Wednesday afternoon, which was held at the M. E. Church, Rev. J. W. Prettyman officiating; Casey Bros. undertakers, had charge. The bearers were W. T. Harrison, S. J. Harrison, Wilbur Harrison, brothers of the deceased, and the following cousins: Heny Colyer, W. J. Davis and C. H. Harrison. Interment in M. P. cemetery.

Cows Sold Well.—The public sale of Holstein heifers by Walter H. Schriver at the Middletown hotel stables on Saturday afternoon was attended by a large number of farmers and others. The entire herd was sold, prices ranging from $35 to $65 per head. The prizes offered to the persons purchasing the most stock, resulted as follows: 1st prize, a fine Holstein heifer, was awarded Mr. Julius Cleaver; 2d prize, a fine Holstein Bull, to Mr. Dan M. Cochran; 3d prize, $5.00 gold piece, to Mr. J. R. H. Price. All the winners agreed to take cash instead of stock, $20, $10 and $5, respectively.

FALL Announcements

TWICE during each year a store (especially of this sort) presents to the buyer entirely different aspects. In fact, due to our local climate, the Dry Goods Merchant has but two seasons—Fall and Winter merge to make one season, and Spring and Summer the other. To prepare for one of these seasons (six months long) is no small task.

To assist us in this preparation the policy of this store has been to buy only from wholesale houses which are considered foremost in the country, both as to style and quality of their goods. This policy has been the bulwark of whatever success we have achieved as distributors of good merchandise.

In the Departments mentioned below the best the market affords is here NOW for your critical inspection.

Millinery Department

Our stock of Hats is now complete. Our buyers have procured from New York, Philadelphia and Baltimore what in their judgment represented the best tastes in Millinery. We have a remarkable showing indeed to greet you.

Dress Goods Department

The piece goods are so pretty that this season promises to be a record one.

BROCADED VELVETS
VELVET CORDUROYS
SHEPHERD CHECKS
LARGE PLAIDS
SERGES, DIAGONALS
RATINES, Etc.,

are here in abundance.

Suit Department

The stamp of Strawbridge & Clothier is on all our Ladies' Suits. This means for you correct style and value received for your money. Buy your Suit or Coat early, so as to get the pick of our splendid assortment.

Shoe Department

You need not look further than this store to find FASHION'S FAVORITES FOR FALL, 1913.
