Dear Sir:

On Monday the 29th inst I expect a despatch, I give care, three families (24 in all) for Liberia.

They are excellent people more intelligent than the average of our colored brethren - I accept them in the assurance that from some quarter there was "but a mere handful of emigrants" heard. In a letter of the 18th inst. Mr. Coppinger says "Mr. McLean wants only the room permitted in the packet for goods for the re-captured Slaves - was 200 - lately landed in Liberia." I want my people shall not be kept out, or that
