FRACAS AT POUND PARTY.

Negroes Engage in a Free-For-All Fight at Davis' Hill, Near Galena—One Man Killed, Three Wounded and One Badly Cut—Sheriff Makes Three Arrests.

It has been some years since the negroes of Kent engaged in such a fracas as took place at a spot near Davis' Hill and Galena early Wednesday morning. A "pound" party was in progress and whiskey flowed freely, two men having made a trip to Baltimore for the refreshments. The fracas resulted in the death of George Kilson, of Golt's Station, Carter Carter shot in hand, Samuel Glees shot in leg and Harrison Davis cut in leg and across abdomen.

Buddy "Napoleon" Wilmer is charged with the killing but made his escape. Sheriff McKee and State's Attorney Vickers went to the scene of the fracas and arrested a boy for selling gin, Marshall Coleman for cutting and Preston Perkins charged with assault with intent to kill. A jury of inquest held by Coroner Frank W. Smith decided that the man came to his death by a shot from a pistol in the hands of an unknown party.

A SERIOUS ACCIDENT.

Mr. Howard Clendaniel while at work alone in his feed mill at Kennedyville Tuesday met with a serious accident. He was "soaping" the belt on the grinder when his arm was caught and he was snatched from his feet, whirled around and thrown with great force to the floor. He maintained his right mind long enough to stop the engine, give the alarm and then collapsed. Mr. James Weer heard his call and went to his relief. Others soon arrived together with Dr. J. W Urie who treated him. His right arm was broken and he complained of pain in his chest. We are glad to report that the broken arm will be the extent of his injuries, the pain in chest having disappeared at thiswriting.

Mrs. W. B. Davis, of Cecilton, was the victim of an automobile accident last Thursday. Mrs. Davis was driving from her home when an automobile driven by a gentleman of Betterton, in attempting to pass collided with her carriage, upsetting the vehicle and throwing Mrs. Davis to the ground. The Kent countian rendered all assistance possible and took Mrs. Davis to her destination in his car. Upon examination it was found she had sustained a fracture of an ankle bone and it was necessary to put the foot in a cast.

SUNDAY SCHOOL CONVENTION

Every School In Kent But Two Answer To Roll Call—Rev. E. A. Owens Presides—Splendid Entertainment At Still Pond Church.

Still Pond M. E. Church, with its newly frescoed walls, new carpets, etc., and with its faithful and earnest band of workers received the members of the Kent County Sunday School Convention with open arms. Rev. E. A. Owens opened the session with brief remarks which was followed by a happy address of welcome by Mr. A. J. Hackett. Rev. F. X. Moore conducted the devotional service. Mrs. J. W. Urie, secretary, read in a most interesting manner the proceedings of the last convention at Millington after which Mrs. F. X. Moore read a paper on Temperance in the Sunday School. Rev. Wm. Clews spoke on Prayer which called forth the amens from the congregation. Rev. C. W. Moore, of Galena, made a forceful address on the Superintendent and his work. Rev. O. B. Rice dismissed the audience with benediction.

STILL POND M. E. CHURCH.

Dinner was served in the basement by willing and bountiful hands. The blessing was heartily sung and all enjoyed the elegant dinner. Chicken, salads, pig, jelly, slaw, biscuits, rolls, coffee, pickles, cake, etc., were on the menu and all were fed.

Rev. T. N. Given conducted the opening service in the afternoon after which came the interesting and helpful reports from the schools, etc. All but two schools reported—a remarkably fine showing—and all spoke hopefully.

Rev. B. W. Kindly was present and spoke of the graded system, new methods, etc.

The nominating committee recommended the following officers which was unanimously adopted:

H. H. Klinefelter, President.
Fred. G. Usilton, Vice-President.
E. A. Owens, Vice President.
Mrs. J. W. Urie, Secretary and Treasurer.
Mrs. Jesse Usilton, Elementary.
Mrs. Walter Hadley, Secondary.
Rev. J. W. Prettyman, Adult Work.
A. J. Hackett, Teacher training.
Miss Bessie Stuart, Missions.
Mrs. L. B. C. Morris, Temperance.
Miss Bessie Cooper, Home Missions.
Rev. C. W. Moore, Evangelism.
District Presidents—Galena, John Medders, Kennedyville; Chestertown, B. F. Rash, Worton; Rock Hall, Geo. A. Carroll, Rock Hall.

At night a large audience listened to addresses by Dr. L. E Barrett, Rev. F. S. Cain and Miss Riffle. The opening service was lead by Mr. John E. Barnes. Special singing was rendered during the day by Rev. W. Clews and wife, Mrs. Arthur Harris, Mrs. John N. Bennett, Mrs. Schofield and Miss Price. Mrs. Schofield presided at the organ.

DEATHS.

Mrs. Annie Elizabeth Elliott died at her home on High street Wednesday after a short illness of pneumonia. She was a daughter of the late Philip Rasin and the wife of John W. Elliott, for a long term of years, employed by the late J. K. Aldridge.

The deceased was known for her benevolent disposition and she was charged frequently with giving away her last crumb. Big-hearted, kind, loving and faithful was Mrs. Annie Elizabeth Elliott, and the writer joins with the mourners in their sorrow over her demise. She was such a tender sympathizer and seemed to get so close to one's need that many turned to her in time of trouble and found her consoling and helpful. The faithful companion whom she leaves here has the sympathy of a large circle of friends and is certainly blest in having a daughter and son who will minister to him as best they can.

She leaves one son, J. W. Elliott, and a daughter, Mrs. Sarah Ivens and husband, W. J. Elliott. The following are the bearers: Harry Ivens, Frank Ivens, Morris Ivens, Preston Ivens, Eli Elliott and Wm. P. Milby: The funeral will take place Saturday afternoon at 3 p. m. Rev. W. R. Graham, officiating, C. L. Dodd undertaker.

George B McWhorter, one of Chestertown's well-known and best citizens, died at his home on Washington Avenue Thursday at noon after a long and painful illness with cancer. During all these trying days the tender and faithful ministration of a devoted wife, daughter and sons have been constantly at his side relieving as far as possible his great distress. He was born in Delaware, removed to a farm near Rolph's wharf, Queen Anne's, and afterward coming to Chestertown about 30 years ago. He had been conducting a livery until he retired a few years ago leaving his sons to run the business. He was known for his fairness, honesty and integrity and no man had more friends than "Mr. Mac."

He leaves a widow and four children and six other children by a previous marriage. These are as follows: Frank R, Robert J, Charles A and Miss Nellie McWhorter; Mrs. John W. Hirons, Chestertown; Mrs. James E. Allen, Clayton; Mrs. H. P. Massey, [illegible]rch Hill; Mrs. B. M. Bergen, Baltimore, and George W. McWhorter. The [illegible]eral will take place at 2 p. m. to-day [illegible]m his late home interment at Chester [illegible]metery, Dr. L. E. Barrett officiating; [illegible] E. Hicks, undertaker. The bearers [illegible]l be his five sons, Mr. Hirons and [illegible]r. Allen.

Mrs. Elizabeth Jones sister to Hon. Garrett Foxwell, of Chestertown, died last Sunday in Wilmington, age 72 years. The interment was at Kenton, Del. Mrs. Lizzie Golt, of Wilmington, is a sister to the deceased.
