For violating the Pure Food and Drugs act by shipping beer to Ocean City, under the name of "rikk" the Gottleb-Bauerschmidt-Strauss Brewing Co., of Baltimore, was fined $500 last Saturday by Judge Rose in the United States District Court for Baltimore. The case was taken to court on a criminal information prepared by District Attorney Hill, and the brewing company pleaded guilty. The fine is the largest ever imposed in Baltimore in a care of violating the Pure Food and Drugs act.

The colored troops fought valiantly but missed fire more than once.

Students!

Here's the neatest, cleanest, easiest-to-fill fountain pen you ever saw—

Conklin's Self-Filling Fountain Pen

Just think!—for the same price that you would pay for an old style dropper-filler pen, you can get a CONKLIN that—

Fills itself
Cleans itself
Never leaks
Never "balks"
Writes superbly

All styles and sizes of holder and point. Some special styles for students.

On the sixth of October, 1913, Mrs. Clara Allcorn, of Delaware, cut and tied one hundred shocks of corn, eight by eight. Thirty-one years ago she cut but did not tie, one hundred shocks, four days in succession. Mrs. Allcorn will be sixty-one years old her next birthday.

The gunners here have been having fine sport this week. One party bagged 20 rabbits Monday, Mr. Joe Lambert leading. C. J. Reiche entertained a party of hunters Monday, and one of them lost his rabbits and didn't miss them until he reached the house! Another young man said he saw 50 rabbits, but only shot at one. He was waiting for them to stop for him!

A couple looking for a preacher arrived in town Saturday. They procured a marriage license as follows: Leon A. Crosson and Sidney D. Long, of Chester, Pa. They were, however, married.

The Chestertown Strawboard Mill, Supt. Woods, has organized a fire department with Mr. Walter Bennett as chief. They have purchased 750 feet of interchangeable city hose and written to the Chestertown Volunteer Fire Co. stating that it was at their service at any time. The American Strawboard Co., in appreciation of the services rendered at the recent fire by the Chestertown company, has sent a check to them for $75.

The Holliday farm near Fairlee of 201 acres has been deeded to Mr. H. T. Rash and the Jewell farm near Worton of 182 acres has been deeded to Mr. B. F. Rash. The former farm was sold at $14,000,00 and the latter farm at $12,000.00.

All ladies of the town and community are invited to attend a specially called meeting of the Woman's Federated Club at the home of Mrs. W. W. Hubbard at the request of Mr. W. Raymond Moody who is organizer of the National Social Welfare League with headquarters in Baltimore. Mr. Moody will address the meeting on the purposes of the League. Dr. J. W. Cain, who is a member of the Advisory Board of the League, will be present and make a few remarks. This work of social uplift must appeal to all well-thinking people. Encourage this movement by your presence.

"Right Posture" Clothes for Boys are made by the Snellenburg Clothing Co., of Philadelphia.
They have an ingenious construction in the shoulders in the shape of a hood or yoke, consisting of an adjustable elastic band which neither binds nor interferes with the free movement of the body and arms.
This band is a reminder to the boy who would stoop.
The coat is beautifully made, with shoulders set well back, which gives the boy a military carriage. It is sewn with silk throughout, with reinforced seams. Stoutly lined trousers and pull proof buttons.
