LOCAL NOTES

M. Kramer, Rock Hall, advertises to pay 42 cents for eggs

W. C. Sutton is installing a hot water plant in the Chestertown M. E. parsonage.

It is understood that the Telephone Co. will occupy the hall now being used by P. O. S. of A. No. 87 after the first of the year.

James A. Jester, of Worton, had a stack of cow pea hay, about five tons, destroyed by fire on Sandy Hill Saturday, Oct. 8th. No insurance.

Lock Jaw killed the driving horse belonging to Father Urner, of Chestertown this week. Mr. Joseph Atwell lost a valuable bay stallion last week.

C. S. Hurlock, Massey, husked 70 bushels of corn per acre off one of his farms. It is said the "Forest" yielded the best looking corn in Kent.

Work will be begun in the Spring on a new home to be erected by Mrs. George B. McWhorter on the South side of her Washington avenue residence.

The Farmers Co operative Exchange is installing a set of large scales to use in their increasing business. Mr. Mingle is in charge and proving his worth.

The explosions heard in this vicinity this week were the result of the use of dynamite by Mr. Walter T. Wright in removing stumps from his lawn on the Walker place.

The sale of cattle held at Worton Station last week was well attended. Young heifers brought $43 to $55. P. V. Hendrickson's fine herd of cattle brought from $60 to $83.

The high tide of Sunday did considerable damage along the river front. The electric light plant wharf was undergoing repairs and about forty tons of earth was washed away besides several tons of soft coal.

The steamer Joppa was detained in Baltimore Saturday until 2 P. M. because of a blow-out and never reached Chestertown until 8 P. M. It required 15 minutes to remedy the defect and two hours to get ready to fix it.

It is unofficially stated that the Kent train will shortly arrive in town at 7 o'clock in the evening, instead of 6 o'clock as at present, and will leave Philadelphia at 4 instead of 3 and also leaving Chestertown at 3 27 instead of 2.52. The school teachers and officials of the local road do not take kindly to this change.

E. A. Jones, of Warwick, has purchased the long established meat market of Mr. George Echenhofer in Middletown, and took possession the latter part of last week. Mr. Echenhofer was Middletown's veteran butcher, having been in the business for many years. The new proprietor is an experienced man at the business.

Local theatre goers have been delighted recently not only by the moving pictures films but by the solos, by local performers. Miss Louise Armstrong is a favorite among our people and makes a fine impression. Messrs Jewell Armstrong and James Colemen, both of Chestertown, sing well while Miss Elsie Whiteley makes a faithful accompanist on piano. Mr. Russell is to be commended for presenting local talent of merit.

The recent cold snap has greatly diminished the supply of milk at the cooling stations along the railroad. Worton Station plant dropped from 7500 to about, 4,000 while the big plant at Massey only received 2500 gallons Monday. Prices have been good this month some farmers realizing as high as $2 for their milk.

It is is said that the land on Bohemia river can equal some of Kents best land. Mr. C. S. Hurlock says he has a tenant over in Cecil who paid him $278 for his share of four acres in tomatoes. This would be at the rate of 16 tons to the acre! Messrs. Davis, Loud, Fowler and other Kent tomato growers—what do you think of that, for Cecil?

The Crew house on High street may be bought at private sale of H. H. Barroll, Esq., attorney for heirs of the late Alex. Crew.

The commissions of newly elected officials are expected this month. Commissioner-elect John C. Wood was in town Tuesday and was ready to take his brother's place. Sheriff Wm. E Brown expects to take charge at the jail about Dec. 1st. He has selected Mr. James C. Bolton as deputy. Mr. Bolton is well and favorably known as the efficient deputy under the late Sheriff Medders.

The best gunning record yet reported is that of Frank Ivens. He has killed 21 rabbits in three half days of hunting and that without a dog!

The Relief Society of Chestertown, are going ahead with their plan to establish an Emergency Hospital and Aged Women's Home in Chestertown. The management of the Kent and Queen Anne Driving Association will hold a matinee for the benefit of the hospital fund November 19 at Radcliffe Park. The ladies will have complete control. A big bazaar is also contemplated in December. The representatives from Kent in the Legislature will be asked to use their influence to secure an appropriation from the State.

The result of the count of mail of all classes as carried by the rural route drivers of Chestertown postoffice during the month of October showed a total of 36,011 pieces for 4249 pounds, the postage amounting to $432.79. The county Commissioners have settled the Richardson damage suit by awarding Mr. Richardson $100 and paying all costs. S Scott Beck, Esq., represented Mr. Richardson.

Mr James Ferrick, Jr., of near Centreville, brought to Chestertown last week some large potatoes grown by him on Mr. Wm. F. Watson's farm. They were of such an enormous size 21 filled a large basket.

Morgan Browne, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles M. Browne, killed a goose Monday morning on Lankford's Bay. He weighed ten pounds.

Automobile Notes.—Graham & Clements have sold to Mr. Claude F. Parks a 5-passenger touring car 1914 model, Buic. They have also sold to Mr. C. L. Jarrell a Buick roadster.

Mr. Wm. E. Moody has sold to Mr. Julian T. Power his Krit 5 passenger car.

Mr. Geo. W. McWhorter purchased at public sale Tuesday the Copper slaughter house and several dwellings on Cross street, Chestertown, for $905.

Wedding Anniversary.—Mr. and Mrs. John W. Duyer celebrated their sixtieth wedding anniversary quietly at their home in Chestertown Monday. Both are healthy, but Mrs. Duyer is in action and looks, about twenty years younger than her actual age. Her eyesight is nearly perfect, never having to wear glasses and being able to read the smallest print, and she is engaged at this time in making a quilt. Mr. and Mrs. Duyer were married during the winter of 1852, and when they went on their weddding trip, north, the Susquehanna river was frozen to such an extent as to make it impossible to navigate. The railroad company was compelled to lay track across the Susquehanna river on the ice. Mr. Duyer is 82 years old, while Mrs. Duyer is 78. Mrs. Duyer was before maariage, Miss Rose Hyda, and came from England when a child. She lived in Church Hill before marriage, her mother being postmistress of that postoffice.

We wish them many years of life and health and happiness. Mr. Duyer is an old line Democrat and never misses an opportunity to vote. He is popular with everyone while his help mate is a successful rival in the affections and esteem of all people.

A Reliable Firm.—Merchants come and go but R. F. Parks & Son keep right on at the old stand on High street. They keep what the public want at fair prices. At this season of the year you'll find blankets, comforts, sweaters and underwear galore, while in their line Queensware, crockery, glassware, matting art squares, oil cloth, trunks and other reasonable merchandise, the buyer can find their needs.

Harry Manages Wedding.—Wm. H. Lambert, Jr., of Chestertown, is proving quite useful in the State house at Annapolis. He does not confine himself to the care of buildings but looks after visitors as well. A dispatch from Annapolis on Monday says: Landon T. Reisinger and Miss Lydia A. Smith, both of York, Pa., were married in the old Senate Chamber this afternoon by Rev. Alexander Bielaski, pastor of Maryland Avenue Methodist Episcopal Church. The young couple upon arriving here visited the State House, where they met Wm. H. Lambert, Jr., one of the assistant custodians of State buildings, who consented to assist them in arranging details for the ceremony. Mr. Lambert accompanied the prospective groom to the Court House, where the necessary license was procured. The couple then went to the State House and standing on the spot where George Washington resigned his commission as Commander-in-Chief of the Continental Army the ceremony was performed."
