CROSS ST., NEAR DEPOT

SHOEING!

AT the earnest request of a number of our fellow craftsmen we agree for reasons which seemed to us good and sufficent to raise the price of plain shoeing on September 1, 1913, to $1.00 per set.

Some of our fellows, however, felt that for good reasons they wished to again make the price 75c per set, and we hereby notify the public that on and after November 18, 1913, the price of plain shoeing in our shops will be

75c Per Set

We solicit a continuance of your patronage, promising to give the best service we can and not keep you waiting long to get your work.

WEDDING EVENTS.

Many Autumn Brides And Grooms —Wedding Announcements.

For several weeks society in Chestertown has been alive with pleasant functions in honor of coming brides and grooms. It is rather unusual for two grand-children to be married the same week and almost the same day. The first event took place yesterday as noted in this column at noon in Emmanuel Church in the presence of a large assemblage. This day was selected because of the 89th birthday of Mrs. Carolene Hynson, the grandmother of the groom. She enjoys excellent health and takes a keen interest in all the events of the day. She was present at the wedding and the most popular attendant among the young ladies.

The wedding of Miss Hallie Roberts Westcott and Mr. R. Hynson Rogers was solemnized at Emmanuel P. E. Church at noon yesterday. A large company witnessed the ceremony which was impressively performed by the Reverend Dr. Henry B. Martin. The church was beautifully decorated with ferns, chrysanthemums and lighted candles and together with the beautiful music rendered by Mrs. Jesse Medders, made the scene one of rare beauty. The bridal party entered the church to the strains of Lohengrins and were met at the altar by the groom and his best man, Mr. Henry Mulford, of Philadelphia. Mendelssohn's was played as party left church and during the ceremony Schumann's Traumerei was rendered.

The bride was most becomingly attired in a white silk crepe gown carrying magnificent bride's roses. The maid of honor was Miss Ann B. Smith and she looked and acted faultless, gracefully and handsomely dressed in a beautiful white brocade with black picture hat carrying pink chrysanthemums. The dainty and pretty bridesmaids were Miss Louise Stam and Miss Polly Westcott, gowned in white lace with green satin trimmings, white lace hat and carrying ferns. The ushers were: Eben F. Perkins, P. Medford Brooks, R. Grooms Parks and Simon Westcott. The bride was given away by her father, Mr. George B. Westcott.

A wedding breakfast was served at the home of the bride's parents to the wedding party and a small number of intimate friends, including the King's Daughters of which the bride is a member. After an extended wedding trip they will occupy their new home on Water street and will be "at home" after December 10th. The wedding presents were beautiful and numerous.

The Hynson-Stollenwerck wedding will take place at 7.30 this evening at Emmanuel P. E. Church with Bishop Murray and Dr. Martin officiating. The bride will be Miss Carolene March Hynson, oldest daughter of Mrs. Richard Dunn Hynson, of Chestertown, and the groom Mr. E. Carroll Stollenwerck, of Baltimore. The groom is connected with the banking house of Alexander Brown & Sons, of Baltimore, and graduated at the Johns Hopkins University in 1911. Mrs. Richard Dunn Hynson will give the bride in marriage and Mrs. William B. Usilton, Jr., will be matron of honor. The maids of honor will be Miss Alice A. Stollenwerck, of Baltimore, and Miss Helen Hynson; the flower girl will be Miss Alice Dunn Hynson; ribbon bearers, Miss Henrietta Hoopes, of Wilmington, and Miss Mary Rogers Hynson. The best man will be Mr. Guy Stollenwerck, brother of groom and the ushers—Messrs. Frank Murray, Fred. Lee, Geo. Gillette, Dr. Eveleth Bridgeman, Dr. Corbin Street, Chas. Tilghman, Seymour Merrick, of Baltimore, and Thos. Massey, of Chestertown. A reception will be given after the wedding at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. Richard Dunn Hynson.

Mr. Maurice H. Grape, of Baltimore, and Miss Stella Dudley, of New York, were married in New York on Wednesday. Mr. Grape has many friends in Chestertown having visited here often who send congratulations to him.

Miss Clara M. Jones, daughter of Mr. Alfred O. Jones, was married Thursday evening, Nov. 13, to Mr. Harry M. Cooper, of Philadelphia. The ceremony was performed by Rev. John D. Hanna, of Philadelphia. They will reside at Frankford, Pa.

Hope H. Barroll, Esq., wife and two sons attended the wedding in Philadelphia Thursday of Miss Ethel Barroll, daughter of Mr. and and Mrs. J. Leeds Barroll, and John Francis Ducey, of Detroit, Mich. The ceremony took place at the home of the bride's, Chestnut Hill and was performed by the Right Rev. Monsignor Kieran, in presence of the immediate families. The bride was gowned in heavy white satin, trimmed in lace. Miss Anna Lewis Barroll, a sister of the bride, was maid of honor, and wore a gown of pink chiffon with a girdle of Copenhagen blue and a Dutch cap of lace. She carried a bouquet of pink snap dragons.

DIED WHILE VISITING SON

Henry B. Layman Had Undergone A Surgical Operation.

Henry B. Layman, 3724 Park Heights avenue, was taken ill last week while on a visit to his son, Henry O. Laymon, in Wilmington, Del., and died there yesterday morning. He had undergone an operation last summer and had never fully recovered.

Mr. Layman was born in 1845 in Christiana, Del., began business in Kent county, but came to Baltimore and for nearly half a century had been traveling salesman for Baltimore commercial houses on the Eastern Shore of Maryland. He had been for many years an active member of the Methodist Episcopal Church, and for the past 20 years was an official of the Park Heights Church.

He is survived by his widow who was Miss Susanna B. Ford, of Elkton, Md., and three children, Alfred C. and Henry Q. Layman, of Wilmington, and Miss Florence M. Layman, of Baltimore, and one sister, Mrs. Emma V. Gittings, of Wilmington

No Occasion for Alarm—County Health Officer, Dr. George Jones, advises us to state that there is no occasion for alarm about the cases of Diphtheria in Quaker Neck. Dr. Jones states that the attending physician, Dr. H. Benge Simmons has the case under strict surveilance and that the house where the cases are have been thoroughly fumigated. Dr. Jones made an inspection of the place on Thursday and he states that everything possible has been done to control the disease and that there is no occasion for alarm.
