CRAMPS, HEADACHE, BACKACHE,

Yield to Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Cedar Rapids, Iowa.—"I was always tired and weak and my housework was a drag. I was irregular, had cramps so bad that I would have to lie down, also a distressed feeling in lower part of back, and headache. My abdomen was sore and I know I had organic inflammation.

"Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and Blood Purifier have helped me wonderfully. I don't have those pains any more and I am all right now. There are a great many women here who take your remedies and I have told others what they have done for me."—Mrs. CHAS. MCKINNON, 1013 N. 5th St. W., Cedar Rapids, Iowa.

Women who are suffering from those distressing ills peculiar to their sex should not lose sight of these facts or doubt the ability of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound to restore their health.

There are probably hundreds of thousands, perhaps millions of women in the United States who have been benefited by this famous old remedy, which was produced from roots and herbs over 30 years ago by a woman to relieve woman's suffering. If you are sick and need such a medicine, why don't you try it?

If you want special advice write to Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co. (confidential) Lynn, Mass. Your letter will be opened, read and answered by a woman and held in strict confidence.

MANY WILL LOSE THEIR PLACES

Examinations For Fourth Class Postmatsers.—Postmaster General Burleson Issues an Order Throwing Open the Positions in Six States to all Comers—They Were Blanketed into the Classified Service By President Taft's Order.

Washington, November 16.—The Civil Service Commission announced today that examination will be held within the next 30 days for the position of fourth-class postmasters in the states of Vermont, New Hampshire, Florida, New Mexico, Virginia and North Carolina.

In this connection a statement issued by the Postoffice Department said:

"This order (President Wilson's order of May 7) removed the cloak of civil service protection from a large body of fourth-class postmasters who had been blanketed into the classified service by President Taft and directed that these positions be thrown open to civil service competition. The examinations will be open to the present postmasters of these offices as well as to any other persons who desire to compete.

"Postmaster General Burleson stated that he desired it distinctly understood that it is his purpose to carry out the intent of President Wilson's order that these positions be filled in accordance with both the spirit and letter of the Civil Service Law. He added that he does not delegate the power of appointment, nor in any case is selection made simply upon or because of a recommendation of a member of Congress. He stated further that he has a duty to perform in making selections under the civil service rules; that it is his desire to select in every case the most efficient man obtainable, and that in furtherance of such desire he is using and intends to continue to use every available means of ascertaining the best men certified to him by the Civil Service Commission.

"Further, he has directed that all letters recommending appointments based upon political considerations be returned to the writers.

"The Postmaster General states that he is in earnest in his efforts to obtain the best men regardless of their political operations, and whenever he finds in any case that he has been misled because of recommendations made for political reasons, the fourth-class postmaster or rural carrier so appointed will be promptly removed from office.

A Splendid Entertainment.

A very enjoyable entertainment was given by the pupils of Miss Leila Ware in the school at Massey on Saturday and Monday evenings, Nov. 15 and 17. The stage was arranged to represent a cozy living room and was an attractive setting for the plays given.

The first play was "The Obstinate Family" and was given in a finished manner by James Donohoe, Mabel Clough, Price Rowe, Mary Wilkins, W. T. Medford, and Katie Donohoe. The second play was "The Trouble at Satterlies" and showed the young ladies in Miss Satterlies select boarding school in a plot to deceive the principal. The young ladies were very attractive in their beautiful evening gowns. Lineta Morris made a stately and dignified principal, while Lucy Griffith, Madeline Rowan, Margaret Massey, Mildred Newnam and Lydia Newnam were an engaging group of school girls who, disguised as ghosts, frightened the wits out of Kathleen, the maid, represented by Louise Morris.

Funniest of all was a little skit, "Dr. Baxter's Servants" given by W. T. Medford, F. L. Newnam, J. R. Moore and A. Commerford. The manner in which it was rendered would have done credit to professionals and showed that our country boys are in no wise behind those of the cities in ability and up-to-dateness. Quite a nice sum was realized which will be used to improve the school grounds.

Among those present were: Mr and Mrs. Ware, Mrs. Isaac Gibbs, Mrs Herman Massey, Mrs. B. Wilkins, Mrs. C. S Hurlock, Mrs. Jas. Lucas, Mrs Sam Hurlock, Misses Annie Meginniss, Mary Griffith, Edna Ransom; Rev. Birnbach and wife, Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Morris, Harry Griffith, Thomas Massey.

BUYERS will find at H. H. Beneman's store in Millington a fine line of overcoats, Misses and ladies' coats and suits at remarkable low prices.

M. KRAMER is selling out at Rock Hall. The business after Jan. 1, will be conducted by Mr. Blaunstein, an active, energetic young merchant. Call and see the barganis.

A Reliable Firm.—Merchant come and go but R. F. Parks & Son keep right on at the old stand on High street. They keep what the public want at fair prices. At this season of the year you'll find blankets, comforts, and underwear galore while in their line Queensweare, crockery, glassware, matting art squares, oil cloth, trunks and other reasonable merchandise, the buyer can find their needs.
