Capt Wm Graham

My dear Sir, The bearer of this is Mr Stevens who has a charge the building of the Liberian Ship I accept of your offer & ordering you to, through your Agent Consignee, the ground tackling for the ship. I will be ready to pay the bill for same on receipt of advice, as you do, will be satisfactory. The following are the weights of the anchors & chains of the ship —

Bow	Best Bower Anchor	2600 lbs
	Second " "	2450 "
Best Bower Chain	90 fathoms	134 cwts
Second " " "		128 "

I estimate the cost & charges of sending the ship to Liberia will be from Shipping & an Adl. Sailing expense, which check to this first, between the agent by the Shipper or ope —

Very respectfully yours

[illegible]
