Baltimore July 2[illegible] 1856

My dear Sir. Enclosed please find a receipt for cash received on ofc of the Colon. Society — the business seems to be a long one all round. Say to Mr Jno Bx, as soon as you receive it, & if you & Mr Shelling come up I will get Mr Howard to draw the Deed for the Circular Church & will supply instead him & Langston to the interested, with plaintiff's & defendants welcome to bring on of the Gen. that keep the lady good & quietly up — [illegible]

Mr Young's business is done or even better than I hope — that you cannot get off I fear & if so I know you would be glad to do so yourself. He is better now than when I wrote — young Dr Young is off to meet be off to — Now really could you not bring Mrs Phe. & with me to Cape one week? or would she not go? —

Truly Yours

James Hall
