DR. BACCHUS TO BE RECTOR EMERITUS

Two announcements of importance in the religious world was made in New York Sunday. One came from the Rev. Dr. John G. Bacchus, rector of the Church of the Incarnation in Brooklyn, well and favorably remembered in Baltimore, and a native of Chestertown, being a brother to Messrs. D. A. and Jefferson D. Bacchus, and the other from the Rev. A. W. E Carrington, rector of the Church of the Transfiguration, in Freeport, L. I.

Although Dr Bacchus preferred not to say anything until the announcement was officially made by the wardens of his church to his people and would neither deny nor confirm anything until after the official announcement, it is known he desired to retire from the rectorship for some time. He was made rector emeritus.

Mr. Carrington's call to succeed him as rector of the Church of the Incarnation was confirmed in Freeport today.

Dr. Bacchus has been rector of the Church of the Incarnation since 1874, going there direct from the Theological Seminary, although he had been heard there during the previous year. He has always held a high place in the councils of the Episcopal Church, not only in the diocese of Long Island, but throughout the country. He has long been a prominent figure in the clerical life of Brooklyn.

When Dr. Bacchus went there from Baltimore, the church was known as the Transfiguration, but this name was legally changed many years ago. During his pastorate many improvements have been made in the property and a new and commodious parish house erected. He has always been regarded as an able preacher, an excellent organizer and a man of strong administrative ability. He was for four years in Baltimore. He is a graduate of Kenyon College, Cambridge, Ohio, and of the Cambridge Theological Seminary.

The Rev. A. W. E. Carrington was for a time assistant to Dr. Bacchus in the Church of the Incarnation, and went to Freeport three years ago.

Mr. Grocer — "I wonder why most of my customers insist on getting Fels-Naptha Soap? I have to keep a large stock of it all the time, because they won't accept anything else. And most of them buy it by the box or carton, too."

Anty Drudge — "The reason is easily explained. Women know that Fels-Naptha saves time, health and labor; so, of course, they won't have any other soap. And as they use it for so many different purposes, it is more convenient to have a large supply on hand."

If you are tired out and discouraged, let Fels-Naptha Soap help you with your work. You will find that it gives you time to rest, that it saves your strength and does your work better than it was ever done before.

Fels-Naptha works best in cool or lukewarm water. It dissolves grease and makes dirt and stains disappear.

Follow the directions on the Red and Green Wrapper. Better buy Fels-Naptha by the box or carton.

Fels & Co., Philadelphia.
