I shall say nothing of accounts in this letter, waiting to hear from you after you have received my letter and Mr Foulds by Sarah Pierce; when I have no doubt that you will have sent accounts applicable to his instructions.

You no doubt by this time are receiving the Emigrants by the Octavia Owen which left Savannah about the middle of June with about 40 Emigrants for your place. Whether we shall be able to send you many this fall is quite uncertain, colored people in this State seem determined not to go. I regret to hear that Hardy thinks of returning. No doubt if he had stayed & prospered many other good families would have followed, but his letter expressing an intention of returning have deterred many.

The loss of Cuthbell was deplorable, he was a true patriot and an honest man; it only remains for you and others on whom is our hope for the Colony depends, to redouble your exertions to it.

Very truly Yours

Simon Tuck
