Baltimore Apr 22d 1856

Revd R. R. Gurley,

Dear Sir I think you for your favour of the 20th although the news from Liberia is sad. I did not get a word from the Cash, our letters were no doubt sent to care of McGilly & English Correspondent – consequently delayed over steamer. If you hear any thing of the Sailor Prince – where or when he sails – please inform me – I do hope McLaine will be at home soon by if he is to take charge of the Ships on return – Please say how Mr L is now days –

Truly yours,

Joseph Cox
