Rev. J. P. Lightner Albany

Dear Sir

My dear Sir, I by leave to call your attention to a matter of delicacy in my last letter to you and yours of the 10th inst. I am the delicacy of your mission to the State, which I think would be affected by any steps on our part of the kind, especially taken — for Mr. Williams has, I state, or offer to the first auxiliary society that may be called upon for Mr. Williams — I have written out — the paper referring to it, & shall offer it next week to the society, & have it adopted — I am sorry to be under the necessity of troubling you with this matter, but I know you will be glad to have the delicacy of your mission to the State, which I think would be affected by any steps on our part of the kind.

Yours truly & respectfully yours

Thomas Kelly
