Revd W M Lee Sec. &c. &c.

Dear Sir

Yours of yesterday is received. I notice you remark that not being prepared to pay the $100 due on 16th. and quite apparently your speed pending - I acknowledge the friendly contract but state on your - & hope your loss will be relieved to when an enhanced. I can spare but one Bill of Lading & Stevedore Receipt enclosed.

I see the Letter of Filbert to which you refer and am much in doubt as one - having no more light than yourself upon the subject. Having information to that the vessel is chartered to go to certain place, you know where - he thinks we may from an over estimate of time and distance - Yes I wish she had been sold. Yours W. M. Lee
