Dec 30th 1861

Mr. Thos Donaldson -
Mr Delg. Campbell -

Gentlemen The last Off on the Ist Prop. for the general appropriation, my recd. through Mr Cox of the State appropriation of 1857 & 58 passed on the 27th & accompanying letter of advice - The act of Assembly, as you will see by reference to the books, passed in the session of 1858 - & our Off. has been recently on the State Treasurer in behalf thereof - We have in years gone by received appropriations, amounting in all, to quite twenty contributions, the number of Emigrants being small. We are now not only out of funds, but owe many bills, printing &c & have been obliged to allow the Sec of our Physician & agents for salary
