Stanton's External Remedy,
CALLED
Hunt's Liniment,

Is now universally acknowled to be the infallible remedy for rhumatism, spinal affections, contractions of the muscles, sore throat and quinsy, issues, old ulcers, pains in the back and chest, ague in the breast and face, tooth-ache, sprains, bruises, salt rheum, burns, croup, frosted feet, and all nervous diseases.

The triumphant success which has attended the application of the most wonderful medicine in curing the most severe cases of the different diseases above named—and the high econiums that have been bestowed upon it, wherever it has been introduced, gives me the right to call on the afflicted to resort it at once to the only remedy that can be relied on.

From the New York Mirror

Hunt's Liniment.—This invaluable remedy of the many 'ills that flesh is heir to,' continues to shed its untold benefits upon all classes of society. We have seen a certificate from some of the most respectable, intelligent, and influential citizens of Westchester, where the proprietor resides, who are above all attempts to mislead the public in reference to any medicine, remedy, or preparation; and as this testimony is at once spontaneous and uniform in commending this truly excellent medicine for rheumatism, and various other diseases named in the advertisement, there can be no longer be a reasonable doubt entertained of its extraordinary success and triumph over the maladies in question.

Sing Sing May 13, 1846.

We, the undersigned, do certify that we have used Mr George E Stanton's External Remedy, called Hunt's Liniment, and have proved it to be fully equal the tc the character he gives it. Its healing properties are truly extraordinary; and we most confidently recommend it as one of the most certain external remedies that has yet been discovered

Caleb Roscoe, Editor Westchester Herald; Isaac Birdsall, Inspector M P State Prison; Alb't Lockwood, Judge Court Com'n Pleas, James Locke, the extensive Horticulturist; M Churchill, Principal boarding school; Sam'l F Reynolds, Supreme Court Com'r; R R Voris District Attorney; Theodosius Clark, Pastor M E Church; Robert Wiltse, late agent M P State Prison; Aaron Ward, late member of Congress; Munson I Lockwood, clerk of the county; Wm H Peck, Agent M P State Prison; B C Morse, Pastor of the Baptist Church; Benjamin Moore Abraham Kipp; Philip G Van Wyck, Benj Washburn.

The following shows a case of rheumatism cured with only one bottle of Hunt's Liniment. The letter is addressed to Mr Stanton:

Yorktown, June 18, 1845

Sir.—Having cured me of a severe attack of rheumatism which had rendered me almost helpless, and at the same time made me suffer great pain, I would offer my testimony in favor of the great properties which your externall remedy, Hunt's Liniment is possessed of. I only used one bottle, and with that I consider I have been saved from a protracted and severe illness. I am now attending to my business regularly, which is that of a Farmer.

Y'r ob't s't OLIVER VAN CORTLANDT.

This liniment is sold at 25 and 50 cents per boule, by all the principal druggists and merchants throughout the country.
