we not be able to do. should we have paid the draft. We deeply regret your disappointment but do not think it any use to blame any one. Had we known it would so readily have made it good.

Do let us hear if you protest another under similar circumstances.

We shall try to change the lady with Mr. Mitchell. If we could either leave any much more than to suffer it we can do so with a small loss.

We are yours

Very truly

W. H. Gulliver

Mr McLain desires me to say that the Plough was loaded for the Steamer after the ship sailed.
