Baltimore Dec 28th 1858

Rev. Wm. McLain
Sec. A.C.S.
Washington

Dear Sir

Your Telegraph of yesterday was brought to our office this morn. The office was open till seven P.M. yesterday and the Steamer has till 3 o'clock which is the hour for closing of the Bank. What time did you hand it in? — Mr. Allen was duly rec'd. and we have paid on check for amount of enclosed Note $593 92/100 as you had less than two hundred Dollars in Bank

Mr Hanson called at Farmers & Planters Bank and was told that the deposit had not yet been declared — it would not be more than last year & perhaps not
