Baltimore March 25 1859

Revd R. R. Gurley. Dear Sir. I have, more at leisure to day, looked over those letters & find but little or no reason for changing my mind — There can be no possible reason for detaining but a matter of Dennis' order, only enough to last till the Ship gets in — It is most likely we shall send a supply in two days or so, but cannot yet tell. will certainly let you know by Friday. If we do not, & the Exchange returns I would advise sending Roberts order for Med. but nothing more by her. as the Owner Attorney is a very Roman & have to be settled & charges off probable. Perhaps you might, if he would take any, but at the last application he would take nothing for the A. C. S. having a suit pending as you probably know with you —

I see I made a gross blunder in the estimate of the amount of those drafts of Mrs Dennis, how I did it I cannot tell except that I was in a rapid hurry — As soon as I can learn more about a supply I will write you —

Please tell me all you can about this prospect of company offering for Ship — I have yet heard nothing from Mr Pring, but he returned the most indefinite of answers —

Very truly Yrs Harry Wells

Rev. Mr Gurley — Yours received — Mr Wells is in error — I do not see any further reason why the Ship should wait longer —
