Baltimore, April 12th, 1859.

Mrs E. L. Young
Broome P. G. Co.
Madam

Your favor dated the 6th inst. came to hand this morning & contents noted. I cannot make out the name of the girl's Father. Please give me his name in a plain hand — also that of the girl, together with her age, stating whether you intend to pay her passage or not. The Ship M. C. Stevens has not yet arrived, but I am looking for her every day. She will no doubt sail again on the first of May. Capt Weems can send or direct your girl to come direct to this office, 105 Second St, opposite the Town-Clock, & I will procure a Boarding House for her. She need not arrive here before the 28th inst. I will write you when the Ship arrives, & can then better inform you when she should be in Balt.

Yours Respectfully
James Hall
