which merchants are at least Master of this business were any but the recipients of my dreams & apprehensions, and I heartily thank God over & over, since that I was instrumental in securing it & keeping its connection with the Republic — But I am worse from fears than in regards to Mr. Brown. Before or after Mitt. & I tremble lest I open my letters from the East — Perhaps I am over apprehensive, & I pray God I may be. but if what I fear happens, sooner or later, I shall regret to my dying day & I fear ever after, that I had not exerted myself to the utmost. & before all other plans or schemes however plausible or promising, to help & support the public Settlements — already too many —

As regards the Ship, we expect her daily, hourly, as the wind is east. If she comes, or when she comes, we can dispatch her in two days, provided she requires no extra repairs — I will telegraph you on first names given her —

Very truly yours Stevens Mallory

To
Rev R. R. Gurley

Maryland Historical Society

The Maryland State Colonization Society Papers

III. Correspondence Sent
B. Letter Press Books, Shipping

2. December 1858—May 1860

1859