Sloop Gen. Washington, Capt. Browne

Late from Mexico.

The news from Mexico is that the American and Mexican Army met at El Penon a position fortified by Santa Anna—a collision took place—the army of Gen'l. Scott pressing on to San Angel where a battle was fought between Gen'l Scott and Gen'l Valencia's division—the Mexicans being routed, fell back to the city under Santa Anna. The number of killed and wounded on either side is not given—the rumor is that the Mexicans have sent a flag to treat for peace and to ask a suspension of hostilities, which has been granted. Gen'l Scott is said to be before the city of Mexico, with his victorious troops Great alarm is said to prevail in the city.

DIED.

At the Head of Sassafrass on the 25th instant, Sarah Elizabeth, only daughter of Benjamin C. and Mary Wells, aged 1 year and 3 months.

"Suffer little children to come unto me and forbid them not for of such is the kingdom of Heaven."

At Hales Corner, on the 4th inst., Mrs. Bramble, consort of Mr. Henry Bramble.

In Chester Town on Tuesday morning the 7th inst., Thomas Price, Esq., a Justice of the Peace and Deputy Register of Wills for Kent County.

On Saturday last the deceased was at his post for a short time, but had for a week previous, been in an enfeebled state, altho' no one anticipated his death. This is but another lesson, solemn and imposing of the uncertainty of human life, and the futility of earthly hopes and expectations. We have been so accustomed to the daily routine of life, of Mr. P.—have known him from childhood—noticed his private walks and public ways from his infancy, heard him so often spoken of, as a moral, and correct young man, who pursued the "even tenor of his way," winning without effort the good opinion of all, and leaving no room for envy or unfriendliness, to hang even a doubt upon, that we cannot yet realise his death. The deceased was of a kind and generous disposition, alive to the good deeds and blind to the faults of others. He was of a mild and amiable temper—inclined to taciturnity—spoke evil of none—seemed to think well of all—treated every one with the same attention, without visible preferences—and when his history for a day was written, it might almost be called his Biography, so uniform, steady and regular, were his habits, pursuits and deportment.

As an officer, he gave universal satisfaction—was always at the place of duty, which is emphatically, "the post of honor." For integrity and honor, he had no superior, and did not appear to know how to do wrong.—The Orphans Court on hearing of his death, made honorable mention of him on the minutes of their proceedings and as a tribute to a faithful, accommodating and efficient public officer, adjourned without transacting of ficial business.

May his unexpected decease, prove a salutary admonition to his surviving friends and acquaintances, that they, in view of the certainty of death, and the uncertainty of the time of his appearance, may live in constant readiness for the interview, and be prepared for the transition. S.

THE rich tracts of land in our mighty country so beautiful in a state of nature, with their delightfully diversified surface, have a new charm and grace in the eye of the philanthropist, when he recognizes those rare heres and plants which grow not only to decorate thy ground, but to assuage the pangs of many a direful disease. The perfection of a few herbs were concentrated by the Indians' skill, and reduced to that form which is now offered to us as the Sampson of Medicine in Consumption and Scrofula. (See the advertisement.)

POSTPONED

Trustees Sale.

THE subscribers as trustees under a decree of the Court of Chancery will offer at public sale on Thursday the 23d day of September at 11 o'clock, A. M., at the tavern door of Charles B. Tilden in Chestertown, all that farm or plantation situate and lying near Chestertown, of which the late Josias Ringgold died seizod.

The land contains

About 306 Acres,

About sixty of it in good and valuable

Wood and Young Timber.

The land is in a good state of cultivation and susceptible of the highest improvement—there is also a good meadow belonging to the farm.

The dwelling house has been destroyed by fire but the outbuildings a large barn with sheds, stable, corn house and meat house all in good order. The land is distant about three miles from Chestertown and adjoins the lands of Samuel Ringgold and the heirs of William Perkins.

Persons desirous of making a profitable investment in lands are particularly requested to view the premises.

The title is indisputable and clear of dower.

Possession of the land will be given on the first day of January—and there is land enough in corn to seed about one hundred and sixty bushels wheat, which the purchaser will have the privilege of seeding.

Terms of sale—one hundred dollars in cash on the day of sale, and the balance in six, twelve and twenty four months from the day of sale, to be secured by bond with approved security.

JOSIAS RINGGOLD, }
J. B. RICAUD, } Trustees.

ECONOMY, UTILITY AND LIGHT.

Pine Oil, Solar Lard Lamps

M. B. DYOTT & KENT,

LAMP MANUFACTURERS,

No. 64 South Second St., one door below Chestnut,

PHILADELPHIA.

HAVE constantly on hand a complete assortment of Dyott's Patent improved Pine Oil Lamps, which are superior in construction, more simple in arrangement, and embrace improvements and advantages possessed by no other Lamps. The cost of burning them does not exceed one half of that of any other light, and produces a light more brilliant than gas. The lamps are so constructed that they can be burned dry, when the wick is short. The wick, which is consumed, being supplied with oil by a feeder underneath it This arrangement keeps the oil always pure in the lamp, and renders other cleansing altogether unnecessary, and the recent improvements made by the patentee, adds beauty to their appearance, and renders their management so easy, that a child can take care of them They are perfectly safe, and free from unpleasant odour.

In addition to the above, we have a large and handsome assortment of Dyott's newly improved Solar Lard Lamps, a great variety of patterns, Hanging Lamps, suitable for Churches, Stores, Halls, Factories, Lodge Rooms, Hotels and Billiard Saloons, and Lamps with shades, designed for reading, and for every other purpose where light is required. A handsome variety of Candelabras, Bouquet Holders, and every article pertaining to the lamp business Having every facility for manufacturing, we are prepared to sell, wholesale and retail, as cheap as any other dealers, and the articles are warranted equal in appearance, and superior in construction, to any that can be procured elsewhere.

N. B. Lamps, &c regilt, silvered, bronzed and repaired in the best manner Oil lamps of every description altered to burn Pine Oil.
