Baltimore, April 21. 1859.

W. M. Hope Esq
Portsmouth Va

Dear Sir

Your letter of the 20th inst. at hand & contents noted. You will please direct the gun to the person for whom it is intended, & to the care of "Dr James Hall
Colonization Office
Balto." & I will see it placed on board the "Stevens", should she arrive. Please send me the receipt that I may know by what conveyance it is coming. The freight to Africa will be one dollar, which if you wish to prepay, you will please send with the Receipt

Yours Respectfully
James Hall
