Baltimore, May 18, 1859

Baltimore, May 18th 1859

[illegible]

[illegible] This is to introduce to you one of our best Baltimore Shipping Merchants, Capt. Stockbridge, who will further long in charge of our good Ship. [illegible] him to your attention, & good courtesy, due to an old friend, & may be assured that he will be found a gentleman, & being the first vessel of our new Republican Company, Your Company should spare no pains in getting through with his passengers & gifts with the duty of succeeding by your guide.

Yours Truly
Thos. Miller
Agt. Colo

Maryland Historical Society

The Maryland State Colonization Society Papers

III. Correspondence Sent
B. Letter Press Books, Shipping

2. December 1858—May 1860

1859