The present Board of Directors are requested to meet at 10 on the same day. It is hoped there will be a full attendance.

U. S. Hotel.

THIS populer Hotel, situated on Pratt street, immediately opposite the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad Depot,under the proprietorship of Mrs. C. Bradshaw, has recently been considerably enlarged by a handsome five story addition in the rear, which renders it one of the most commodious of the first class Hotels of our city. This addition contains a number of rooms of large size, handsomely furnished and fitted with grates and every convenience for the comfortable accommodation of guests. Attached to it are a number of bath rooms, which are being furnished, and where the luxury of a warm or cold bath can be at any time enjoyed. It is surrounded by a beautiful portico, by which access can be had to the top of the house from the yaad or from either story without entering the interior of the building, and affording, in case of fire, another mode of decendant independent of the inner staircases, each story of the portico being brilliantly lighted with gas. The yard will be handsomely ornamented with trees and shrubbery, and will offer a pleasant retreat in warm weather.

One great convenience we noticed throughout the entire Hotel is the introduction of both warm and cold water, by means of pipes, to each story; a convenience which will be greatly appreciated by a travellers, and especially by families.

The whole establishment is fitted up in a superior manner,theparlors being furnished in the latest and most costly style,and the chambers, which are light and airy, being replete with every comfort and convenience. The table always exhibits an abundance of every luxury to be found in our markets, and a number of polite servants are constantly in attendance to supply the wants of the guests.

The contiguity of the United States Hotel to the Railroad depot and steamboat landings renders its location particularly desirable to travellers,who are sure to meet with the utmost courtesy and urbanity, and where in fact they will always feel at home.

SICKLY SEASON.—There is not a man, woman, or child, but should take medicine at this season of the year, but more especially at this present time: for there probably were never so many causes existing at one period as there are now, so likely to produce a state of sickness. The repeated changes in the atmosphere, by acting as they do upon the constitution, and quality of the blood itself, give occasion for the most fatal and malignant disorders. The bile becomes (and often without any warning,) in a most acrimonious condition from these repeated changes, and if the stomach and bowels have been neglected previously, the first symptoms require immediate attention. Even those who have a healthy disposition of body, are subject to sickness under these circumstances.—Therefore to prevent any danger, we ought carefully to guard against a costive state of our bowels. Once or twice they should be evacuated in twenty-four hours. There are many causes which produce unhealthy blood: sometimes it may arise from grief, at others when the system is in a state of fullness it can take place from sudden joy; close application to a literary undertaking can produce it—in all cases where many persons have to be seen and spoken to, which producing nervous excitement, is a fertile source of unhealthy blood occasioning that slow nervous fever which has carried off soms of our best men, men martyrs to their reputation, but which a knowledge of the powers of Brandreth's Pills would have prevented. Those who desire to secure their health, under almost any adverse circumstances, can do so by having Brandreth's Pills on hand, and at once resorting to them when the first feelings of disorder take place in their bodies. As this advice is used so will the health be. The will yet be when a man that makes a good medicine shall be honored more than he who is an adept in the art of war.

Beware of Counterfeits!—The following are the duly appointed Agents for the sale of the genuine Brandreth Pills in Kent co.

John Russel, Chester Town;
S. Cooper, Urieville,
S. W. Cole & Co., New Market;
R. L. Rolph, Millington;
Nathan Peacock, Georgetown X Roads;
Benj. C. Wells, Head of Sassafrass.
