Baltimore June 15th 1859

My dear Sir. I arrived safely on Friday last per steamer Star of the Union & delivered your letter to Mr Hanson. Mr Hanson paid it, & told me that it was all for Mrs Briggs' people, only five. This astonished me & I talked about Mr Lipscomb, wrote Mrs Briggs & Mr McElroy. To day Mr L came in, when I at once mentioned the said that only 13 cents was for Mrs Briggs' people. The bal. $40.22 for your freight. Your Briggs Star Mortg. Co. bill which he got at your order, & of which he told you, directing Jarrett to charge to you & bring bill — This is it. I now write to Mr Hunt, begging pardon &c — & direct Mr Hanson to charge you on the Sor. $40.22 while you may to charge to —

I hope my plantation is sufficient, at least my vacation is —

Yours Truly
Wm Hall

Rev J Walker Lewis —

Dear Sir

I have a letter from W. T. Kennedy enquiring for Mrs Moore, of whom I could give no account only, that she came to court — Do you know anything of her, if so, say so, if not be so kind to say anything —
