Baltimore, June 20th, 1859.

Mr F. W. Urey
Princeton Ky

Dear Sir

Your favor of 13th inst. reached us this morning & contents noted. We received a letter from Mr McLain, two days after our second one to you was mailed, stating he had recd $2.47 from you, freight on two boxes, & we made our entries accordingly. Therefore we beg to return you the order on him cancelled.

We are sorry we have given you so much trouble & trust that the anxiety to send our acc'ts to Washington by the last of this month will be sufficient excuse.

Yrs Respectfully
G. W. L. Hall & Co
