Baltimore, Sept 28. 1859

Mr. R. I. Davis
East Haverhill, Mass.

Your letter of the 24th inst enclosing Two dollars came to hand this morning. Also the box marked Rev. I. Voutrum, Bexley Liberia. The freight amounts to one dollar. I therefore enclose you the balance in postage stamps as directed, saving the discount on note. I have no knowledge of the box you allude to – don't think it ever came in the Stevens. This vessel will sail from here Nov. 1st. Any packages or letters forwarded to this will be sent by her.

Yours very truly
