Rev. Mr. McLean

Dear Sir. I have just received your letter of the 20th & will have another to send off tomorrow. I shall also get a letter from the 20th & to day with 5 hours to do it in. —

Respectfully yours. a little boy of Mr. Wesley's was drown in the Ship. a Native boy. the boy had been down yesterday. Mr. C. is much troubled & disposed to make trouble. thinking to have the boy made a chief. & do sundry other things. I fear the boy must be brought back under any circumstances if is a painful affair. I am fearful of his getting hold of him. but forewarned — forearmed. I have the opportunity of his Off. but fail to give them to him — fearing to come in. he wished back & they were only McBurly is strongly anxious to have all under of caught. but only not certain. Yours truly

Truly yours
