IN ADVANCE OF THE MAIL!!

Loco Foco Candidates.

Through the politeness of a gentleman who reached here this morning from Balmore, we received a paper of yesterday, on Thursday last the balloting commenced; the ballots resulted as follow:

	Cass,	Woodbury,	Buchanan,	Calhoun,	Dallas
1st	125	53	55	9	3
2nd	133	54	55		6
3d	156	53	41
4th	179	38	33

Gen'l Cass was nominated by 9—170 being necessary.

On the second ballot Gen'l Butler, of Kentucky was nominated for the Vice Presidency.

The Barnburners from New York withdrew and refused to take seats in the convention with the Hunkers. The vote of N. York, was not given or counted in the Convention. Maryland voted 6 for Cass 2 for Woodbury.

John W. Crockett, a son of Davy; has become an associate editor of the New Orleans National.

MARRIED,

In this place, on the 23d inst., by Rev. Dr. Jones Mr. Thomas W. Ringgold, late of Louisiana, to Miss Mary I. Cruikshank, of Chester Town, Md. Baltimore papers please copy.

[We render, to the happy pair, our thanks for a loaf of very nice cake which we received with the above notice.]

DIED.

In this place, on the 22nd inst., Mrs. Araminta Jacobs, relict of the late Arnold Jacobs, of Queen Ann's county.

In Quaker Neck, on the 20th inst., Mr. Samuel Whales, at an advanced age.

East Boston, May 23d, 1847.

Mr. S. W. Fowle—Sir: I have seen so much of the virtue of "Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry," that I feel it my duty to add my testimony in its praise. My son, about 14 years of age, has for the last ten months been afflicted with a severe cough, pains in the side and body, and a gradual wasting, until he was but a mere living skeleton. I had had the advice of three physicians, but none of them could give him any relief, and gradually, yet surely, he seemed to be sinking in to the tomb.—Happening accidentally to see some of your "Free Almanacs," we felt as though the Balsam would help him, as there were some cases that had been cured when they were as bad as he was. I therefore procured a bottle of Dr. Kidder, the Agent in this place, and before he had used all of it he began to grow better, and by using three bottles his cough was all gone, and he is now enjoying good health, for which he is solely indebted, through the blessing of God, to Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry.

WM. DIXON.

Dr. Kidder says the article has given universal satisfaction to his customers.

PERSONAL DISCHARGE.

KENT COUNTY, SCT.

ON the application of John W. Parsons, of Kent county, by petition in writing to me, William B. Wilmer, one of the Justices of the Orphans' Court of Kent county, stating that he was in confinement for debts which he was unable to pay, and praying me to grant to him the benefit of the Insolvent Laws of this State, a schedule of his property, estate and effects, and a list of his creditors and debtors, on oath, as far as he can ascertain them, being annexed to his petition, and the said John W. Parsons, having satisfied me by competent testimony that he has resided two years next preceding the time of his application within the State of Maryland, and I having appointed William H. Palmer, a Trustee, for the benefit of the creditors of the said John W. Parsons, and the said trustee having given bond with security approved by me, for the faithful performance of his said trust, and the said trustee being in possession of all the property, estate and effects of the said Insolvent debtor, (the necessary wearing apparel and bedding of himself and family excepted) for the benefit of his creditors. I William B. Wilmer, chief justice of the Orphans' Court of Kent county, do hereby grant a personal discharge to the said John W. Parsons, and do hereby appoint and fix the first Wednesday in the next September Term of Kent county Court for the appearance of the said John W. Parsons, to answer such interrogatories as may be propounded by any of his creditors, and do also appoint and fix the first Wednesday in the next September term of the said Court, for the final hearing of the said application, and do also order that the said John W. Parsons, by causing a copy of this Notice and order to be inserted in one of the newspapers printed on the Eastern Shore of the State of Maryland, once a week for three successive months, before the first Wednesday in the next September term of Kent county Court, give notice to his creditors to appear before the said Kent county Court, on the first Wednesday in the next September term of said Court, to shew cause, if any they have, why the said John W. Parsons, should not have the benefit of the Insolvent Laws as prayed.

LEVY COURT NOTICE.

The Levy Court of Kent county will meet at the Court House, in Chester Town, on Tuesday the 11th and Wednesday the 12th inst., at 10 o'clock, A. M., and will continue to meet at the same time and place and hour every Tuesday and Wednesday, until the 21th of June next, for the purpose of altering and correcting the accounts of such persons as have sold, alienated, or transferred, any assessable property, since the first day of June last, and also for the purpose of attending to any other business that may come before them. After the 21st day of June next no alteration whatever will be made in the assessment.

The Levy Court particularly requests all Supervisors and Constables, to bring in their accounts and renew their bonds on or before the 1st Tuesday in May next, and that all supervisors report the number of gates on their respective roads. All supervisors and constables neglecting this notice will be considered as resigned or refused to serve in the office to which they have been appointed and the Court will proceed to fill the vacancy.

The Levy Court will require all accounts presented to said Court, to be under oath (which oath can now be administered by the Court,) and the several items chargeable in the same to be made out at length, and all new applications for pensions to be made by petition in writing, stating the residence, condition, circumstances of the applicant, and signed by one or more persons having a knilledge of the facts therein set forth.

The Court will require all new applicants for the office of Constable, to file their application in writing, with the clerk to the Levy Court, and also a recommendation from the citizens of their immediate neighborhood, stating that the applicant is a suitable person to fill said office, and that public convenience requires said appointment.

Agreeable to an act of the General Assembly, entitled "An act for the re-valuation of the real and personal property in Kent county," passed at December session 1834, is enacted, viz:—"That if any Executor, Guardian or Trustee, shall hereinafter fail to inform the Commissioners of Tax—or Levy Court—of the transfer of any property belonging to any deceased person, ward, or estate in trust, of which he or she may be Executor, Administrator, or Guardian or Trustee, shall be liable for the tax on the same; until the Commissioners of Tax—or Levy Court—shall be properly notified of such transfer.
