☞What is the matter with me Doctor? Whats the cause of this sallow complexion, jaundiced eye, depression of spirits, pain in the side and shoulder, weariness of body, bitter taste in the mouth? Such is the enquiry, and such the symptoms of many a sufferer! It is the liver which is diseased, and the Cholagogue is the remedy always successful in curing it. Try it, and judge for yourself.

WISTAR'S BALSAM AT HOME.

Boston, April 14, 1846.

Mr. S. W. Fowle,

Dear Sir:—I have been induced at the suggestion of many of my friends, to make known to the public through you, the great benefit I have derived from the use of the medicine called WISTAR'S BALSAM OF WILD CHERRY—in the hope that others suffering from lung complaints may find the same relief by its use that I have done.

The latter part of last summer and in the fall, I suffered greatly from a severe cough, pain in the side, difficulty of breathing, loss of appetite, and other symptoms which indicated a rapid decline. Three of the most learned and intelligent medical practitioners pronounced my case consumption, and stated to me that nothing but a change of climate could be of the least possible benefit to me, as my lungs were in a very inflamed and diseased state. At this time, in hopes I might find a temporary relief for my cough, I bought a bottle of the Balsam, which not only gave me the relief that my failing strength required, but seemed to give me new life and energy.

After taking several bottles of the medicine, my appetite returned, and with it my strength; my cold entirely left me, as also the night sweats, which, previous to this had been very profuse. In five weeks time I gained eight pounds of flesh, and have been able ever since to take my accustomed exercise, a walk of from three to four miles a day, and attend to my regular business. I should be most happy to have you refer any one, who may wish further particulars, to me at my place of business, No. 305 Washington street.

Very truly yours,
WM. H. HOLBROOK

AUCTION SALES

VALUABLE LANDS AT PUBLIC SALE.

THE undersigned as agent for M. Tilghman Goldsborough, Esq. will expose to public sale, to the highest bidder, on the 18th July, 1848, at the tavern porch of Mr. Charles B. Tilden, in Chestertown, at eleven o'clock, A. M., all that situate near Turner's Creek in Kent county, known as

Tuesday,

FARM

BLOOMFIELD,

CONTAINING

824 Acres,

and adjoining the lands of Mr Benjamin Howard and others.

For the convenience of purchasers the FARM has been carefully surveyed and laid off into

THREE FARMS,

each lying on the Sassafras river, and bountifully supplied with WOOD & TIMBER.

The Division, embracing the buildings, contains 262—The Pond Division 159½ and the Lloyds' Creek Bar Division, 312 ACRES. The land will be offered as a whole, or in parcels to suit persons disposed to purchase.

This estate is very beautifully situated, near the mouth of Sassafras River, in a desirable and salubrious neighbourhood, within a mile of Turner's Creek Landing from which vessels sail for BALTIMORE regularly, and occasionally to PHILADELPHIA. The surrounding and adjacent country, is in a high and improving state of cultivation, and of great value. The soil of this farm is good, and with a moderate application of lime and sea weed, which can be easily collected, might be brought into a high state of cultivation and productiveness.

TIMBER

of the finest quality of the different varieties, might be sold, to an an amount fully adequate to lime the whole, and leave an abundant supply of the best and most valuable kinds for domestic uses. There is probably 350 acres of

Wood and Timber,

on the Farm, and probably, no Farm on the Peninsula, is better WOODED. It consists of the varieties of Oak, Hickory, Walnut, Poplar, &c., and to one disposed to engage in the sale of Wood and Timber would be of very great value.

Drift Wood and Timber, are frequently found on the shores in considerable quantities.

The Shores have been considered fine for fishing and the proximity of Ponds, and Lloyd's Creek Bars, two of the most eligible points for gunning, would give it additional value to sportsmen.

On each of the Divisions of the Farm are elevated and handsome sites for buildings—with commanding views of the Sassafras River and Chesapeake Bay.

Plots of the land are in possession of the subscriber and will be exhibited to any who may call to examine them.

Mr. William Wilson, the Tenant, will shew the property, and the marks of the Divisions, to all persons who may call upon him.

The Terms of Sale

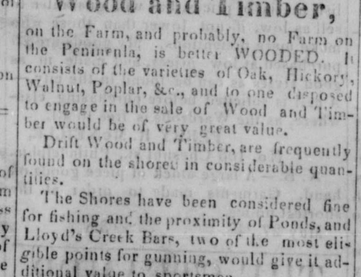

Are one third cash—the balance in one and two years, with interest, and well secured by bond with security—some modifications may be made in the terms, if circumstances require it.

The title is indisputable and conveyance clear of all incumbrances will be made to the purchaser with warrantie.

Possession will be given on the first of January next.

It has been nearly four years since I administered on my brother's estate, and two years since the books and accounts of Walker & Wilmer were placed under my control. I think that no person can complain of not having been liberally indulged. I owe it to myself to my bondsmen and to the heirs of my brother to close up his estate. In conclusion, I hope no person or persons will ask indulgence beyond the time above named—as it will be unpleasant for me to refuse them, but refuse them I will.
