THE NEWS.

Chester Town, July 22, 1848.

Gen. Taylor's Principles.

As it has become fashionable with some to declaim against Gen. Taylor for an alledged want of principles, and who would oppose the old soldier be his principles what they might, and published in every paper and pamphlet in the Union—yet for the purpose of preventing misconception, we subjoin some of the avowed and published opinions of the war-worn and consummate hero:

1. I have no private purposes to accomplish, no party objects to build up, no enemies to punish—nothing to serve but my country.

2. I have cardinal principles which will regulate my political life—I have no concealment and hold no opinion which I would not readily proclaim to my assembled countrymen, but crude impressions upon matters of policy, which may be right to-day and wrong to-morrow are, perhaps, not the best test of fitness for office.

3. One who cannot be trusted without pledges cannot be confided in merely on account of them.

4. I am a Whig—but not an ultra Whig—if elected I would not be the mere president of a party.

5. The power given by the Constitution to the Executive to interpose his veto, is a high conservative power; but in my opinion should never be exercised except in cases of clear violation of the constitution, or manifest haste and want of consideration by Congress.

6. I have thought that the known opinions and wishes of the Executive have exercised undue and injurious influence upon the legislative department of the Government, and from this cause, I have thought our system in danger of undergoing a great change in its true theory.

7. The personal opinions of the individual who may happen to occupy the Executive chair, ought not to control the action of Congress upon questions of domestic policy.

8. Nor ought the President's objections to be interposed where questions of constitutional power have been settled by the various departments of Government and acquiesced in by the people.

9. THE TARIFF.—The will of the people as expressed through their Representatives in Congress ought to be respected and carried out by the Executive.

10. THE CURRENCY.—Same opinion as No. 9 on the Tariff,

11. THE IMPROVEMENT OF OUR GREAT HIGHWAYS, RIVERS, LAKES AND HARBORS.—Same opinion as No. 9 on the Tariff.

12. THE MEXICAN WAR.—My life has been devoted to arms, yet I look upon war at all times and under all circumstances, as a national calamity, to be avoided, if compatible with national honor.

13. ACQUISITION OF TERRITORY BY CONQUEST The principles of our government, as well as its true policy, are opposed to the subjugation of other nations and the dismemberment of other countries by conquest. In the language of the great Washington, "why should we quit our own to stand on foreign ground."

As an offsett we append Gen. Cass' opinion in the Senate U. S. in a speech delivered by him:

"We might swallow the whole of Mexico without being hurt by it."

14. TERMS OF PEACE.—In the Mexican War, our national honor has been vindicated and in dictating terms of peace, we may well afford to be forbearing, and even magnanimous to our fallen foe.

15. I shall engage in no schemes, no combinations, no intrigues. If the American people have not confidence in me they ought not to give me their suffrages. If they do not, you know we well enough to believe me, when I declare I shall be content, I am too old a soldier to murmur against such high authority.

[The above views are extracted from Gen. Taylor's letter to Capt. Allison, dated 22nd April, 1848.

16. THE UNION.—The firmness and duration of the Union materially depend upon the purity of the Supreme Executive authority, and that imbued with the true spirit of the Constitution, the Chief Magistrate should be a Patriot President, intent upon the moral glory and solid prosperity of our country:

17. The true welfare of the Republic requires an Executive Chief, not committed to extreme opinions, but who will temper past animosities, and by an example of wise conciliations regulate the rising differences, with which new and vast events are about to test the durable worth of Republican Government.

18. That the platform of the Constitution, upon which Gen'l Taylor stands before the people furnishes a sure and ample basis upon which all our fellow citizens may unite in his support and participate in the benefits of good government under his administration.

(The 16, 17 and 18 are extracts from the resolutions passed at a public meeting in Baltimore, on the 20th March 1848.—Gen. T. in his letter of the 1st May 1848, acknowledge the receipt of a copy of the resolutions and approves of the political sentiments contained in them.)

19. If the good people think proper to elevate me, at the proper time, to the highest office in their gift, I shall feel bound to serve them, if not from inclination, from a principle of duty, honestly, faithfully and to the best of my ability, in accordance with the principles of the constitution, as near as I can do so, as it was construed and acted on by our first Presidents; two of whom acted so conspicuous a part in framing and completing that instrument.—[Gen. Taylor's letter to J. R. Ingersoll, dated 3d August 1847.]

20. Permit me to add, that should such high distinction be conferred upon me, the constitution in a strict and honest interpretation, and in the spirit and mode in which it was acted upon by the earlier Presidents, would be my chief guide.—[Letter from Gen. Taylor to O. P. Baldwin or R. H. Gallagher, Esq., dated April 20, 1848.]

21. "The joy and exultation of the greatest victories were always, after the heat and excitement of the battle, succeeded by feelings of poignant sorrow and pain; and war, after all, is a great calamity, and his the greatest glory who can terminate it."—[Extract speech of Gen'l Taylor at N. O. in Dec. 1847.

22. I need hardly reply to your concluding inquiry, that I am a peace man, and that I deem a state of peace to be absolutely necessary to the proper and healthful action of our republican institutions On this important question I freely confess myself to be the unqualified advocate of the principles so often laid down by the Father of his country, and so urgently recommended by him in his Farewell Address to the American people. Indeed, I think I may safely say, that no man can put more implicit faith than I do, in the wisdom of his advice, when he urged upon us the propriety of always standing upon "our own soil."—[Letter from Gen. Taylor to the Hon. Truman Smith member of Congress and U. S. Senator elect from Connecticut, dated 4th March, 1848.]

23. The following are the concluding remarks of a published letter from the Hon. Truman Smith, dated Washington, June 20, 1848:

"I declare my utmost confidence in Gen. Taylor. I feel that I have a thorough insight into his principles and his character. As he is an honest man, I confide in him; as he is a moderate man, I respect him; as he is a humane man, I admire him; as he is a man of unsurpassed bravery I honor him; as he is distinguished for good sense and sound discretion, I think he will make a safe President; as a high sense of justice has ever characterized his conduct, I am willing to trust him with all the rights and interests of all parts of the country, and particularly those of the free States; as he has ever been remarkable for firmness and decision of character, "asks no favors and fears no responsibility," I believe he will, with a steady hand, guide the country safely through all the perils which may environ it; as he possesses the utmost purity and excellence of character, I shall take pleasure in seeing him at the head of public affairs; as he is truly republican in his habits and manners being one of the people, and sympathising thoroughly with the masses, I think there is a fitness in making him the chief magistrate of those same masses of whom the humblest can exclaim with truth, "he is one of us!" And as he is a good, sound, conservative and reliable Whig, abominating War and condemning meanness, fraud, chicanery and trickery, who will put far from him all evil doers, political or otherwise, I am for him from the beginning to the end of the chapter.—I consecrate my hand and my heart to the good old cause as represented by Zachary Taylor, and will do all within the range of my feeble abilities to make him the next President of the United States.

TRUMAN SMITH."

SELLING WHITE MEN.

Our readers will recollect the out-cry raised against Gen. Harrison, who, it was said, was in favor of selling poor white men for debt. The slander arose, as well as we recollect, from his having signed some act, similar to our law, on the subject of vagrants. The whole affair was cleared up to the satisfaction of every person, except those who were determined not to believe.

What will the reader say to the following?

"AN ACT, for the punishment of idle and disorderly persons."

Section 1. Be it enacted by the Governor and Judges of the territory of Michigan, that any Justice of the Peace on conviction may sentence any vagrant, lewd, idle, or disorderly persons, stubborn servants, common drunkards, common nightwalkers, pilfers, or any persons wanton or licentious in speech, indecent behaviour, common railers or brawlers, such as neglect their calling and employment, mispend what they earn, and do not provide for themselves or families, to be whipped not exceeding ten stripes, or to be delivered over to any constable, to be employed in labor not exceeding three months, by such constables to be hired out for the best wages that can be procured; the proceeds of which to be applied to the use of the poor of the county.

Made, adopted and published at Detroit the 27th day of July, 1818.

LEWIS CASS,
Governor of the Territory of Michigan.
A. B. WOODWARD,
Presiding Judge of the Territory of Michigan.

J. WITHERALL,
JOHN GRIFFIN.
Judges of the Territory of Michigan.

What will what can those Demagogue; who harranged so lustily upon Gen. Harrison's delinquency, say to this? What will Gen. McKay, that man so full of virtuous indignation against General Harrison, for signing a law to sell, as he alleged, "poor neighbor white men into bondage," that he gave vent to it in a pamphlet, say now? Is his indignation all exhausted?—Has he none for this act of the Democratic candidate? Is that which was wrong in Harrison, right in Cass? Should not that which is sauce for the goose, be sauce for the gander likewise? Or does Locofocoism, more ample than charity, hide (not merely a multitude) but every possible sin? Gen. Cass may have been right for signing this bill. We know nothing of the circumstances which governed his conduct. But how contemptible does it not make the revilers of Harrison, the miserable Demagogues who seize upon everything, no matter how low, to attain an unhallowed end, appear!

Genuine INDIAN MEDICINE

Russelsville, Putnam co., Ind., July 1, 1847.

Dr. Wright: Some time since your agent left me a supply of your Indian Vegetable Pills. I have found said Pills to be in great demand lately for the cure of Fever and Ague. Mr. James Boyd has a son who has a son who has been laid up with Fever and Ague, and had tried other remedies, all of which proved of no avail. He determined to buy your Indian Vegetable Pills, and by using one box is now sound and well. Mr. T. Spencer had a daughter, Mr. Hugh Groves a son, and Mr. Charles Nicolas and three of his family, were all down at the same time with fever and ague, and had also tried the various other remedies without effect. Your Indian Vegetable Pills soon restored them to perfect health. I can assure you, from what I have seen, your Indian Vegetable Pills may be relied on for perfect cure of Fever and Ague. Yours respectfully,

JACOB DURHAM, P. M.

Also an acting Justice of the Peace.

This is to certify, that I was entirely cured of the chills and Fevers of several months' standing, by the use of four doses, of four pills each, of Wright's Indian Vegetable Pills, after taking medicine from a regular physician for some time, and have had no symptoms of them since, which has been about one year ago.

LET ITS WORKS PRAISE IT

Sores can be Cured!

All kind of inflamed sores can be cured viz: Burns, Scalds, Cuts, Bruises, Swellings, Chilblains, Chaps, Hands, Chafes, Scaldhead, Salt Rheum, Erysipelas, Inflamed Eye Lids, Pimples on the Face, Eruptions of the skin, Inflammatory Rheumatism, Bites of insects, Piles, animals, and the local Cutaneous Diseases of warm climates. In short, all kinds of sores and outward malities and inflammation can be cured by Touseys Universal Ointment, or Master of Pain.

Description of this Ointment, and a brief statement its properties and powers; It will cure any sore or ease, either external or internal that can be cured by ointment or Liniment or other External Application is the most perfect remover of pain ever applied to human body. It can always be depended on for removal or allaying all internal inflammation, its healing properties are completely perfect. It is a scientific Compound, the basis of it emanating from one of the first chemists in America. Physicians acquainted with its ingredients, universally prescribe it to their intelligent men in the community keep it in their families as a standard and reliable remedy for all kinds of sores and external diseases it is the cheapest Ointment before the public. It is made in the most careful manner great pains being taken in the select on of ingredients and the utmost caution in compounding it.

The idea of promoting insensible perspiration by filling up the pores of the skin with a greasy compound is perfectly ridiculous. Internal disease can never be cured in this way. All that Ointment can do is to cure the diseases on the surface of the body. Touseys Ointment or master of pain, is the most safe complete and perfect remedy ever prepared in the form of Ointment, or Salve. It will cure any and every kind of sore external wound that can be cured by an outward application. To cure the dreadful pain of the most extensive burn of Scald, unapproachable. To remove the sufferings caused by Salt Rhumb ERYSIPLAST Scald Head, Quincy, Sweld Facef Broken Brsast, Chapped Handa, sore Lips, Inflamed Eyelids Chilbrains, etc, it cannot be equalled, is as near infallibility as any human compound can be.

To cure speedily, easily and effectual BRUISES, Sprains INFLAMMATORY. Rheumatism. Old sores, Cuts, joints pimples on the face eruptions of the skin bites of insects or reptiles of animals scratches: chafes, &c. never fails. For the miserable feelings caused by excessive sun burns in the hot season it is a perfect remedy. Ill residentes of warm climates should keep it on hand. nAshort, it is a sovereign reliable, never failing remedy for any and all sorts of sores or descases to which sun an article can be applied.

☞Remember the name, Touseys Universal Ointment or Master Of Pain.)

Thousands have tried and thousands praise it. It is working its way into public favor with rapidity hereto unknown in the history of medicines.

No family should be without it. The agents wish the public gratis with books describing this ointment. ☞Each box of the genuine Youseys universal Ointment or master of poin has the signature of S. Tousey written on the outside label in black ink, Never purchase a box, unless the signature can be seen. Price 25 cents per box, or five boxes for $1.

Dr. Martin's compound syrup of Wild Cherry.

This Compound is one of the best remedies ever offered the public in Coughs, whether arrising from Colds or the Whooping Cough, or that dreadful malady, Consumption, Few remedies, in the short time it has been before the public, have effected so many cures. The proprietors are everyday receiving orders for it at a distance, in which they have been highly gratified to learn its good effects. The Bishop of the Protestant Episcopal Church of Maryland, (the Right Rev'd. W. R. Whittingham) has authorised us to say he has used it in his own person with decided benefit; and our Medical friends do not scruple to recommend it as one of the best remedies in Consumption, Bronchitis, Asthma, &c., which they have ever met with. The following is from a highly respectable physician on Kent Island, whom we made acquainted with the preparation:

Kent Island, June 22, 1847.

Dr. Martin—Dear Sir: Since my return home, I prescribed your Syrup of Wild Cherry, in several cases; one in particular, a case of Asthma of long standing (about 12 years, a neighbor and patient of mine—Her disease has never been benefitted by any Medicine which she has taken, and for the last year or two she has been confined entirely to the house. I do not know that she has had a good night rest for a long time, but since she commenced taking your medicine (and she has only taken one bottle,) she is enabled to go to bed and sleep well all night. I think the medicine will make a perfect cure of her husband, Mr. Earcikson, is a merchant here, and says if you will send him some of it, he will act as your agent.

Yours, SAMUEL HARPER, MD

Price 75 cents per bottle. Around each bottle there is a short treatise on diseases of the Chest.

You will be pleased with it, and soon learn that any one may cure himself by getting a bottle, and taking it according to the directions.

Dr. Martin's Universal Purgative Pills.—They are particularly adapted to all Bilious Diseases, and are at all times a safe and effectual purgative. The following is from a highly respectable physician.

Upper Hunter Creek, Caroline co Md
October 17th, 1846.

Dr. Martin, Sir:

Having been made acquainted with the composition of our valuable pills, by yourself, 2 or 3 years ago, I used them freely in my practibe with entire success, and shall continue to do so, as I may practice medicine. And I now take great pleasure in recommending such a pill as yours to the public, as a safe and effectual purgative in all cases where a purgative is necessary.
