W. M. Shepherd. Frederick Town Nov 22. 1832

Dear Sir

Calvert Barker and his wife Lydia, the two Col. persons I intended to send prosper by this Expedition to Liberia, will present you this. They are provided with all necessary Bedding, Clothing, and other means to enable them to make a decent appearance on their arrival. They have relatives in the City with whom they will spend two or three days untill the Ship is ready for their reception. Mr Cole man with a Young Woman who will be under the probation of Calvert & his Wife will be down on Monday next.

Jack You has been with us a very idle time. I hope he has realized all he thinks he has lost this week. I meant to
