I was most agreeably delighted by the intelligent part of that interesting community with the expression of unqualified approbation of our Maryland scheme. – I must add that if the good people every where saw things as we see them here, and as we feel them the doctrine of the Garrisonites would fall to the ground. –

An awful crisis has come. – We in Maryland feel it, all our sympathies & religious exercises are in favour of doing something for the blacks – but what can we do, if Colonization be suspended? You know that their condition with you in the North is no better than it is here. – The time has come for the trial of the faith of all denominations who believe that "the Heathen" are to be his who died for all. –
