CHARGE OF MURDER. John Hawks has been arrested in New Orleans, for murdering his paramour, a girl named Elizabeth Ford.

GEN. CASS.—It is supposed that the Legislature of Michigan will send the Hon. Lewis Cass to the United States Senate again.

SINGULAR FACT.—Lancaster county, Pa. at the late election, cast 6,624 more votes, than were cast in the whole State of Rhode Island.

☞The Pennsylvanian is informed that the Messrs, Corcoran had transferred $2,000,000 Government Securities, over to Messrs. Riggs & Pickersgill, in New York, is without one word of truth.

GAMBLING.—There is said to be a gambling hall in Boston, supported by ladies, many of whom are highly respectable.

PINE-APPLE MARMALADE.

Take the largest, ripest, and most perfect pine apples. Pare them, and cut out whatever blemishes you may find. Weigh each pine-apple, balancing the other scale with an equal quantity of the best double refined loaf sugar, finely powdered. Grate the pine-apples on a large dish, omitting the hard core in the centre of each. Put the grated pine-apples and the sugar into a preserving kettle, mixing them thoroughly. Set it over a moderate fire, and boil and skim it well, at times stirring it up from the bottom. After the scum has ceased to appear, still stir, till the marmalade is done, which will generally be in a half an hour after it has come to a boil; but if not clear, bright, and smoothe in that time, continue to boil it longer. When done, put it into a tureen, and leave it uncovered for two days, that the watery particles may evaporate. Afterwards remove it into tumblers, covering the top of each with tissue paper cut round so as exactly to fit the inside.—Lay this paper closely on the marmalade, and press it down round the edges. No other covering will be necessary.

This preparation of pine apples is far superior to the usual method of preserving it in slices. It will be found very fine for filling tart-sheils, and for jelly-cake.—

VALUE OF LIFE.

In the West Indies, a colonel was ordered to disembark his corps to attack one of the islands. In stepping into a boat he fell overboard, the current carried him rapidly from the ship, when an honest tar jumped after him, kept him afloat till a boat was despatched to his assistance, and put him safely on board. One of Jack's messmates observing the colonel put something into the hands of his deliverer, stepped up to him, exclaiming, "I am me, Jack, you are in luck to-day;" and eagerly opened his hands expecting to share in a can of grog; but on discovering the reward a sixpence, the tar uttered a prayer, and whispered to his messmate, "Never mind Jack, every man knows the value of his life best!"

THE NIAGARA SHOWER-BATH

AN ENTIRELY NEW ARTICLE FOR SHOWER BATHING,

With old or Warm Water.

A great and important improvement is made in this Shower Bath over all others, by throwing the water immediately on the body without wetting the head unless at the will of pleasure of the bather; but greater point is gained by being enabled to bathe with warm water, which no other Shower Bath is adapted to—and most important of all, the bathcan be medicated without injury to the hair.

Many persons cannot take a cold bath—their case is met in this, as they can regulate the temperature of the water to suit their wish and commence bathing at any season of the year without any unpleasant result. Ladies can have the advantage of bathing without wetting the head or covering the same.

The arrangements are simple and complete, and not liable to get out of order.—The Bath can be adjusted to suit any heighth, from a small child to the tallest person. When the door is closed, the fixtures are hid and the outside appearance is that of a neat piece of furniture.

They have received the approbation of several midical gentlemen—others are requested to call and examine them.

BATHING Read What Armstrong says:

Donot omit ye who would health secure.
That daily fresh ablution, that shall clear
The sluices of the skinn, enough to keep
The body sacred from indecent soil.
Still to be pure, even if it did not conduce
(As much as it does) to health, very greatly worth,
You daily pairs: 'tis this adorns the rich;
The want of this is poverty's worst foe
With this external virtue, age maintains.
A decent grace; without it, youth and charms
Are loathsome." Aug. 26
