Colonization Office 31 Dec. 1832

	Upon a review of this year's transactions it appears that John Hoffman, Treasurer, did not bring forward a balance duly 4th of $48.06, upon which account he stands indebted on these books in that sum.
	On the 27th Augt. Dr. Ayres stands charged to "Cash in full" $143..45" which, being $48. less than his claim upon the "	Society, no other presumption can be entertained than that he would not have receipted to Mr. Hoffman "in full" if he had not previously received from him the $48. above mentioned.
	To close the two accounts it will be necessary to enter the transaction as having occurred as above detailed . .	48 00
	And also to charge Home Expenses for a probable payment of (This receipt has since been found and is filed with the receipts of 1832)	06	48 06
